

ROSS CROUSE SELECTED AS JAYCEE PREXY

Ross Crouse, Gettysburg R. 3, regional vice president of the state Junior Chamber of Commerce, was elected president of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening at a meeting held in the Jaycee office in the former Western Maryland depot. He succeeds Thomas Metz.

Crouse, and other officers elected Thursday will be installed by the executive vice president of the state Jaycees, Lloyd Berkley, Reading, at a buffet supper and dance April 8. Annual awards will be presented then to the outstanding officer, outstanding new Jaycee, outstanding committee member and the "Keyman of the year."

Other officers elected Thursday were Harry Spangler, internal vice president; Robert Hixon, ex-Chamberlain, secretary; Robert Weiland, treasurer; Magnus Flaws, chairman of the board of directors and state director, and as directors Richard Guise, Carroll Smith, Richard Clark, Donald Becker and retiring president Thomas Metz.

Plan Hop, Show, Road-eo
Donald Chamberlain reported plans for a "Buddy Dean" record hop Saturday night, April 4, at the Gettysburg High School to help raise funds for the summer football camp of the local high school football team.

Ross Crouse, as chairman of the Antique show to be held August 14, 15 and 16, reported seven dealers have already applied for space at the show.

Mason Allender was named chairman for the annual Teen-Age Safe Driver Road-eo to be held Saturday, April 25, at the Gettysburg High School parking lot. The group voted to attempt to make the competition an "entire Adams County event," including all high schools of the county. About four high schools have sent representatives each year. Jay Sixes was appointed awards chairman for the Road-eo.

To Help Road-eo
Robert Hixon was named chairman of the committee to obtain judges for the Road-eo; George Lambert, location and equipment chairman; Charles Anstadt, high school promotion, and Donald Becker, publicity.

Additional plans were outlined for the chaperoning of the Gettysburg High School Senior class graduation party to be held June 3 at the Chalet at Dillsburg. Harry Spangler was appointed chairman for Jaycee participation in the event.

MISSING LOCAL WOMAN FOUND

A 72-year-old woman, whose identity remained a mystery for nearly 24 hours, was returned Thursday to the Robbins Convalescent Home, Buford Ave., after investigation by Salvation Army aides showed she had been missing Wednesday.

The woman, identified as Mrs. Lovey Hutchinson, first attracted attention in Chambersburg on Wednesday morning when she attempted to engage a taxi operator to take her to Lebanon. Visibly confused, Mrs. Hutchinson was unable to tell the taximan how she came to Chambersburg except to say she thought she had walked there.

Check Area Churches
Mrs. Hutchinson was taken to the Salvation Army in Chambersburg and again interviewed by Salvation Army aides Thursday morning. Still unable to say where she resided, Mrs. Hutchinson, however, said she thought she lived with people by the name of Robbins or Robinson.

A check of area churches put Salvation Army aides in touch with a Waynesboro pastor, who referred them to the Robbins home.

Officials of the Robbins home identified Mrs. Hutchinson as one of their guests, saying she had walked away from the home early Wednesday morning. They said police had been searching for the woman since her disappearance.

New Staff Putting Out HS Newspaper

With Paul Steiner as the new editor and a dozen other Juniors in key positions, the first edition of the Maroon and White, Gettysburg High School newspaper, was issued by a new staff this week. Steiner, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steiner, Gettysburg R. 2, succeeds Joseph Sharras as staff chief.

Now serving as news editors are Carolyn Heimerer, Sue Newman, Pat Weaver and Judy Weikert. Jean Patterson and Jane Weber are the new feature editors. Barbara Hibner and Terry Fox head the new sports department. Kay Smith is staff typist. James Spence is the new business manager and Edward Kuykendall is circulation manager with Ross Ramer and Raymond Menges as their assistants. Ramer also is staff photographer.

BRUCE CATTON FAVORS CIVIL WAR LAND BILL

"If public response can save the Gettysburg battlefield from commercialism, a good start has been made," Congressman James M. Quigley said today.

"Historians such as Bruce Catton, noted author, have indicated their support of my position in the second battle of Gettysburg," the 19th District Congressman declared, "and we have enlisted the aid of the Civil War Roundtables and State Civil War Centennial Commissions in the fray."

"By asking for extended hearings on the Park Service Appropriation request, Senator Joseph Clark has given Congress and the nation another chance to preserve a national historic shrine."

In addition to Catton, appeals have been made to Gen. Edward J. Stackpole, Civil War author; Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director, Pennsylvania Historical Commission; Clifton D. Weyde, Southern historian, and scores of historical groups.

Backed By Catton
"Letters of support are beginning," Catton said.

CHARTER FOR PACK CLOSES

The charter for the Black Walnut Boy Scout district's newest unit, Cub Pack 161, of Aspers, was closed Thursday night at a meeting of parents and Cubs at the Aspers Fire hall, where the new unit will hold its monthly meetings on the last Thursday of each month.

The charter presentation for the new unit will take place at the April 30 meeting at the Aspers fire hall. The pack is sponsored by the Aspers Fire Co.

Boy Scouts Have $2,900 In Drive

Donations to the Black Walnut Boy Scout District in the annual drive for funds being held outside Gettysburg now total $2,900, Harold Ecker, chairman of the house to house canvass, announced today.

The special gifts committee has reported receipt of more than $500, Ecker said and $2,396.25 has been secured by the various local committees. Earl Ecker, Biglerville chairman, this week reported $315 collected in that borough. From Bonneauville Robert Storm reported collections of $108.50 and Eugene Albright reported collection of $34.50 in the Gardner-Idaville area. An additional $21.50 was reported from Fairfield and the Benderville. Aspers area sent in an additional $5.

'First Family' At Good Friday Services

For the second consecutive year, President and Mrs. Eisenhower attended community Good Friday services here early this afternoon. They are shown above at the entrance to the Methodist Church with the host pastor, the Rev. William Fenstermaker (second from right), and the Rev. Edwin P. Elliott, Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian pastor. Both ministers participated in early sections of the three-hour service. The Eisenhowers, with Mrs. Everett Hughes (between the President and Mrs. Eisenhower), stayed for the first 25 minutes of the service that began at noon. Mrs. Hughes is the widow of Maj. Gen. Hughes, who was Chief of Ordnance for President Eisenhower during World War II. Last Good Friday, the President and First Lady attended union services in the Presbyterian Church.

Times Starts Five Articles On Khrushchev

East and West are slowly moving toward a summit meeting. There the West will match wits with a 5 foot 5 ex-coal miner named Nikita Khrushchev.

What are the things that made him what he is today? How did he rise out of a morass of Red intrigue to become a leader of a third of the world's people? What are his strengths and weaknesses?

These are some of the questions William L. Ryan deals with in a perceptive series of articles beginning in this newspaper Monday.

"Khrushchev: Key to the Kremlin" brings into focus communism's aims and methods and the methods of their leaders used to advance their cause at all costs.

You'll find it an absorbing story of the way Khrushchev works, of the stark pressures that underlie the West's grasp for peace — and of the things that can change Russia.

Start "Khrushchev: Key to the Kremlin" Monday in The Gettysburg Times.

D. E. EMLET, 84, DIES THURSDAY

Daniel Edward Emlet, 84, a native of Adams County, and a resident of Camp Hill R. D. for the last 12 years, died Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the Seidie Memorial Hospital, Mechanicsburg, following an illness.

A son of the late Edward and Amanda (Melhorn) Emlet, he was a farmer in Latimore Twp. all of his life until 12 years ago when he moved to the Camp Hill area. His wife, Emma, died seven years ago.

Surviving are a son, Paul Emlet, Camp Hill Mounted Route; a grandson and two great grandsons.

TO ADD LABORERS

The Gettysburg National Park office announced today that applications will be taken for summer work as laborers in the park next week with employment to start April 1 and May 1. The work pays $1.59 per hour and will be on a 40-hour schedule. Monday through Friday of each week. The minimum age requirement is 18 years. Application should be made at the Park Office in the post office building.

HERE AND THERE

The nearly two thousandth anniversary of the Resurrection of Christ, the Lord, is but a few hours away. A little more than one day of Lent remains and then from the altars, sanctuaries and shrines of the free Christian world hymns of glory and happiness will peal forth.

Easter is a day of joy and laughter. It is the golden hour of the proof of the Divinity of the Messiah who more than 1,900 years ago trudged and stumbled up the stony slope of Calvary. His body lashed by leather thongs, His head dripping blood from a wreath of thorns . . . there to be crucified. Three days after His burial in a vault from which "no one can escape," the Messiah, just as He forewarned, rose from the dead.

On this anniversary when all Christians renew their faith in the Kingdom of God, it may be charitable to give some thought and prayer to the hundreds of thousands who are denied the right of Christian worship by their godless captors . . . and to whisper a word of hope and supplication for the thousands of others who are being sacrificed to the will of a fistful of dictators.

To live and worship and die in a free world is a privilege these days. To enjoy the pleasure of celebrating the anniversaries of the Resurrection and the birth of Christ and to offer some sacrifice, in His name, during the season of Lent is a blessing many have given their lives for and failed to attain.

Easter Sunday every family

should attend worship service in the church of their choice. Fineries and flowers will be in abundance, the finest of music will herald the occasion, but your presence in a house of worship and your fervent prayers that Christian love and charity and freedom be spread throughout the world will contribute more to the joyful occasion.

Happy Easter to you all.

State Extends Deadline Again

Gettysburg has obtained another extension of time in which to complete plans for a new garbage disposal system. Borough Councilman Harold Ecker said today.

The state some months ago directed that the Gettysburg borough dump in Cumberland Twp. be closed and covered. Since then the town has been seeking to establish a sanitary landfill operation for waste disposal.

The second extension of the time granted by the state Department of Health expired Tuesday.

Councilman Ecker said his request to the state for further extension has been granted. The new deadline is April 24. Ecker said he hopes to have a report on progress in establishment of a landfill operation by the April 6 meeting of borough council.

There will be special music also.

49 ELIGIBLE TO TAKE STATE EXAM APRIL 3

Forty-nine Adams County high school students were announced today by County Superintendent C. P. Keefer as eligible to take the annual state scholarship examination to be given Friday, April 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon at Gettysburg High School. The examination will be administered by the assistant county superintendent of schools, M. Francis Coulson.

The state scholarships, which provide $800 toward a four-year college course in a Pennsylvania Institution of higher learning, were established by the state by an act in 1919. The state Council of Education is required by law to award the scholarships on the basis of a competitive examination, with one to go to each county each year.

Those declared eligible to compete for the Adams County Scholarship are:

Bermudian Springs High School — Charles Wilson Chronister, Carl Hollinger Myers, Wilma Jean Wenschhof, Carole Elizabeth Chronister, Harold Leon Griffie, Esther Mae Harbold, Carl Leroy Hikes and Dorothy Ann Lerew.

Biglerville High School — Susan Dee Baer, David Lynn Dull, Ruth Ann Crum, John Edgar Stover, Margaret Irene Wentz and Cecelia K. Yoder.

Sixteen From Gettysburg — Judith Lee Bostwick, James Francis Herring, Joseph Theodore Lowe Jr., Jerry Wayne Mohler and Joyce June Spence.

Gettysburg High School — Louise Bowling, Sylvia Brent, Louise Collins, Shirley Chronister, Roger Craver, Larry Fair, Hammond Geyer, Mary Hewetson, Mary Jarvis, Stanley Prosser, Joseph Sharrab, Lloyd Shelleman, Frank Skidmore, Ronald Stokes, Charles Vial and Sidney Weikert.

Littlestown High School — Roberta Graham, Janice Carol Breighner, Michael Smeach Collins and Karl Ronald Bankert.

New Oxford High School — Nancy C. Budd, Sharon L. Sponseller, Jane E. Spangler, Patricia A. Estep and William H. Weikert.

Delone Catholic High School — Richard Restak.

St. Joseph's Academy — Eugenia F. Conrad, Donna Jo Rickrode, Janet M. Staub and Mary Agnes Eaton.

GOOD FRIDAY IS OBSERVED

A cast of seven will present the dramatization, "Were You There?" this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church. The same program with some cast changes has been presented each Good Friday evening in the local church for nearly a decade. Miss Ruth McIlheny is directing.

The cast includes Robert Geigley as Peter, John Korver as Judas, Prof. Herbert Hamme as Pontius Pilate, Melvin Sargeant as Simon of Cyrene, Richard Bruce as the Roman centurion, Lawson Wright as Caiaphas and Jack Lucksinger as John.

There will be special music also.

CANCER DRIVE CAPTAINS WILL MEET TUESDAY

Borough and township captains for the annual Cancer Crusade in Adams County will meet Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Shelter house to receive kits for their workers, hear explanations of crusade materials given them, and complete specific plans for the 1959 finance drive to be held April 12 to 25.

M. Francis Coulson, Biglerville, and Robert R. McCoy, Gettysburg co-chairmen, said that while all of the captains for the drive have been named, some additional workers are still to be selected before the campaign opens. They added that following annual custom the drive will be primarily family in the county to give life-saving information on cancer and secondly to ask a contribution toward the goal of $10,000 set for the campaign.

Dinner Meeting

Monday, April 6, an Adams County dinner meeting will be held in the Gettysburg High School cafeteria. Dr. Stanley Reimann will be the speaker. Members of all the service clubs of the community will attend.

Chairman Coulson also announced that Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower has agreed again to serve as national honorary crusade chairman, a post she has held since 1953. She wrote, in accepting the post: "It always brings me such satisfaction to hear how well everything is going for the American Cancer Society and to know that you wish for me to have a small share again in its activities. I shall be most happy to continue my support of your organization by serving as the honorary national chairman of your 1959 Cancer Crusade. Let us hope that this will be the most successful year ever in the fight against this dread disease."

IKE PLAYS 18 HOLES, 2 HOURS

President Eisenhower and his friend and farm supervisor, General Arthur S. Nevins, played 18 holes of golf on the Gettysburg Country Club course Thursday afternoon in just two hours.

The President arrived at his farm in a helicopter at 1:02 p.m. Thursday and one hour and forty minutes later teed off for his first round of golf since last November.

"It sure feels good to get a round under your belt," he said after playing the first nine. The President appeared well pleased with his game.

Several other golfers played the course Thursday but most were unaware that the President was playing his first game of spring. Col. Walter Tkash, White House physician, accompanied the President to Gettysburg. Mrs. Eisenhower arrived late Thursday afternoon by motor and Major and Mrs. John Eisenhower and four children were due to drive here today for the Easter weekend.

While here the President will work on two addresses he will deliver next week, including one at Gettysburg College next Saturday.

S. Blaine Miller Will Head Masons

S. Blaine Miller was elected eminent commander of Gettysburg Commandery No. 79, Knights Templar, at a meeting Thursday evening in the Masonic Temple.

Other officers elected were: William R. Fisel, generalissimo, and Stanley W. Hull, captain general. Those re-elected were: Ray J. Kitzmiller, treasurer; Guyon E. Buehler, recorder, and Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, Arthur E. Hutchison and Hubert B. Flaherty, trustees.

The elected officers and the appointed officers will be installed at a divisional public installation at the new Masonic Temple in Hanover, Saturday, April 18. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. and the installation is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

C. E. Union Easter Dawn Service At 6

The annual Easter dawn sunrise service, sponsored by the Adams County Christian Endeavor Union, will be held again in the Church of the Abiding Presence, on the campus of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Sunday at 6 a.m.

The Rev. Carl E. Yost, pastor of the West Manheim Lutheran Church, Hanover, R. D., will speak. The Rev. Charles E. Held, pastor of the Mt. Joy-Harney Lutheran Church, will conduct the service which will include special music.

Keep Public From Bleeding Woman

KONNERSREUTH, Germany (AP) — Therese Neumann today was reported to have bled again from wounds similar to those of Christ on the Cross, but some 9,000 pilgrims were barred from her farmhouse.

Nearly every Good Friday for the past 33 years, crowds of visitors have filed past the woman's bed to see the stigmata, as the annual bleedings are called.

Miss Neumann is now 60, and the crowd was not allowed in because of her health.

Roman Catholic authorities have never officially recognized the stigmata of Miss Neumann, but neither have they advised that they were not genuine.

DR. PFANZ NEW PRESIDENT OF ROUND TABLE

Dr. Harry W. Pfanz, Gettysburg R. 2, historian at the Gettysburg National Park, was elected president of the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table Thursday evening at a meeting in the GAR rooms, E. Middle St.

Dr. Pfanz will succeed G. Henry Roth as president. Roth was elected a director of the organization after serving the constitutional limit of two years as president.

William G. Shoemaker II, York St., was elected vice president. Dr. Robert L. Bloom was selected as secretary to succeed Jacob M. Sheads, who had also served the constitutional limitation in the office and who was elected a director.

Name Myers Director

George W. Olinger, S. Washington St., was re-elected treasurer. James B. Myers, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park, was elected a director.

The election followed a report by the nominating committee comprising Andrew Larson, George Olinger and Col. Corvin Bryan. The Round Table voted to send notice to all other Round Tables of the action of the House of Representatives in turning down an appropriation for purchase of land for the Civil War battlefields and of efforts that are being made in the Senate to restore the $1,250,000 appropriation to the National Park Service bill. The matter is now before the Senate Appropriations Committee and would provide, if Congress approves it, $750,000 for purchase of approximately 600 acres of land for the (Continued On Page 4)

DR. H. E. BRYAN STRUCK BY CAR

Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, 53, Lincolnway West, New Oxford, was injured Thursday evening at 8:55 o'clock when struck by an auto at the intersection of N. Washington and Chambersburg Sts. He was removed to the Warner Hospital with fractured ribs, a fractured collarbone and a cracked elbow. He remained overnight at the hospital for x-rays to determine the extent of the injuries.

Borough police said Dr. Bryan, former Arendtsville High School principal, for many years associated with the Lower Adams Joint School system and now an official of the state Department of Public Instruction, was struck by a car operated by Francis L. Kane, Gardner.

The accident was the second in two days for the Bryan family. Wednesday night Mrs. Bryan suffered a minor back injury when her husband's car, driven by her brother, John W. Frederick, of Arendtsville, was struck by an auto which failed to stop for a stop sign at Cross Keys.

WINS AWARD

Carolyn Heimerer, a Junior academic student at Gettysburg High School, has been named as the recipient of the annual Franklin and Marshall award this year. The selection was made by vote of the senior high school faculty in recognition of scholarship. A book will be presented to her at the annual awards assembly in May.

WILL ATTEND SERVICE

Members of Gettysburg Commandery No. 79, Knights Templar, will attend the annual Easter sunrise service at Washington on Sunday. A bus will leave the high school parking lot at 4 a.m. and will arrive in Washington at 6:15. All members of the commandery are urged to attend.

FORFEITS FINE

Richard T. Weedon, Emmitsburg, recently forfeited $11.45 in Frederick on a charge of reckless driving.

Rush to Bix-Sway for their pre-Easter sale of all boys' and men's clothing.

'59 TAX BILL IN ADAMS OVER TWO MILLIONS

Adams County's 26,590 taxpayers will be handed a more than $2,000,000 bill this year by their local and county governments and school districts.

Figures compiled by Clerk of Courts Kenneth W. Johns show a total tax bill for county, institution district, boroughs and townships and schools of $2,017,639.80, but the figure will possibly be higher than that because the amount listed for school tax, $1,289,229.73, represents the taxes of last year.

School districts will not set their 1959 tax levy until May or June. The clerk is forced to use the prior year's taxation for schools in figuring the bonds for the various tax collectors, which must be approved by the court at this time.

Breakdown Of Figures

The $728,410.07 remaining is the tax bill that will be handed the taxpayers by the county, institution district and the towns and townships, according to their budgets for the coming year.

The list shows the county will be seeking $200,082.71 from real estate and occupations and $39,851.96 from the personal property tax. The bill from the institution district totals $92,111.48 and the towns and townships want $368,774.02 for their operations during the year.

Since the clerk's estimates for the bonds are based on local taxation the amount represents less than half the tax money spent in the county. The school districts receive more from the state than they do from their local taxpayers, and the townships receive far more from the state for road building than they obtain from their own residents.

The bonds for the tax collectors are figured at slightly less than half of the amount of money they will be required to handle.

The Gettysburg lodge will elect officers at Tuesday's session and the Past Grands will vote for the state officers. Gettysburg lodge this year is sponsoring Donald S. Weikert, Gettysburg R. 2, for the post of grand warden in the state organization.

Nominees who will be voted on Tuesday for office in the local IOOF are: Past grand, Russell Spangler; noble grand, William Stansbury; vice grand, James Myers; trustee, Edgar Stine. Officers to be continued are: recording secretary, Paul Snyder; financial secretary, Thomas Treher; treasurer, Melvin Little; captain of the degree team, David Tawney; custodian, Wilbur Nett, and trustees, John Settle and Wilbur Nett.

Members will be asked to inspect the changes made in the Odd Fellows property for the placing of the new day Schmitt store and discussion will be held on plans for installation of additional conveniences and changes in the home property.

Special refreshments will be served.

"Easter Carlift" Will Be Provided

The local Moose lodge reopened at 3 o'clock this afternoon after having been closed from 1 to 3 o'clock in observance of Good Friday. An advertisement listing the lodge as closed all day was incorrect.

Dewey E. Wolff, secretary of the lodge, also announced that persons desiring transportation to and from church Easter Sunday, in the "Easter Carlift" program of the Moose may call the lodge until 6 o'clock Saturday evening, so that arrangements can be made to provide cars for transportation to the churches.

The lodge will not open Sunday until 12 noon and for that reason persons wishing transportation are asked to call by 6 o'clock Saturday night to make arrangements for the cars. Wolff noted that while the lodge is open Saturday night, the cut off for requests for transportation is made as of 6 o'clock to permit time to complete arrangements for cars.

FIREMEN CALLED

Gettysburg firemen were called to a woods blaze along the Biglerville Rd. Thursday afternoon at 3:02 o'clock.

BREAK UP SEX RING STARTED BY TWO GIRLS

MASTIC BEACH, N. Y. (AP) — Police said today they had broken up a teen-age sex ring started 18 months ago by two girls when one of them was only 10 years old.

Five boys aged 15 to 17 and three girls, now 12, 15 and 16 met for sex parties mostly in the afternoon after school at their own homes, the homes of relatives or "anyplace they could get," police said.

The 17-year-old boy, Donald Susino, was charged with second degree rape and ordered held for the grand jury. A 16-year-old boy, Joseph Bonanno, was charged with sodomy, but the charges were dismissed by Justice of the Peace Ulysses W. Johnson in a hearing at Brookhaven Thursday. Brookhaven town detective Cecil Rich said other charges will be filed against Bonanno.

The other boys, all 15, and the two younger girls will be charged with juvenile delinquency, Rich said.

The ring came to light Monday night, Rich said, when the 16-year-old girl who joined the club a month ago broke down and told her father after he noticed she seemed very worried. She is being questioned by police and her name was not revealed.

Rich said more arrests are expected. He said the children, all except Susino, fellow students in the local high school, came from respectable, average families, and that the parents never allowed their daughters out at night.

He said the two younger girls organized the club and "apparently made most of the advances on dates."

Mastic Beach is in Suffolk County on the eastern end of Long Island.

Woman Breaks Shoulder In Fall

Mrs. Daisy Moser, 83, of 100 Baltimore St., was treated Thursday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of her left shoulder received in a fall at her home.

Mrs. Harry Dick, 32, 217 Chambersburg St., an employee of the Inductive Equipment Corp., was treated for a laceration of the right index finger.

Frank Linn, 40, 210 E. Middle St., an employee at the Glenn L. Bream Garage, received treatment for a laceration of the right thumb.

Patricia Sprankle, 20, Fairfield R. 2, was treated for a fracture of the left wrist suffered in a fall while roller-skating.

Robert Neely, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neely, Fairfield, received treatment for cerebral concussion sustained when he was struck on the right side of the head by a baseball at school.

Derailment Stops Traffic On Pennsy

NEW YORK (AP) — The Pennsylvania Railroad said that all four main tracks north of Philadelphia were knocked out of use by a minor derailment today. Delays of up to two hours and the rerouting of two Washington trains ensued.

The tieup occurred on the outskirts of Philadelphia on a section of several miles between Frankfort Junction and Holmesburg. A spokesman said that a freight train moving beside the four main tracks was derailed and knocked down a power support for electric power to the tracks.

Hubbies Object To Wives In Politics

WINFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Two housewives have filed for election as Winfield aldermen April 7 over protests of their husbands.

The candidates are Mrs. John Dean and Mrs. James Sayers. They said they decided to run after trying in vain to get men, including their husbands, to file against two incumbent aldermen. The women assailed "one sided elections."

Their husbands placed a protest advertisement in a newspaper to let everyone in this Mississippi River town of 500 know they are unhappy.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Miss Jody Bream, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Bream, W. Broadway, was guest of honor at a birthday dinner Thursday evening at the home of Atty. and Mrs. S. M. Raffensperger, Old Mill Rd. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drum, Drexel Hill, and Jon Minnich, York.

Miss Ellen Rice, Marion Junior College, Marion, Va., is spending Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rice, W. Broadway.

Miss Louise Hartzell, a member of the English Department of Pennsylvania State College, University Park, Pa., is spending the Easter vacation at her home on E. Lincoln Ave.

The Bandar Log Club will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, Springs Ave.

Mrs. John D. Naugle will read a review of Alan Moorehead's "The Russian Revolution" Monday afternoon from 1 to 1:15 o'clock over WGET. This is another in the series of book reviews presented by the American Association of University Women.

The Junior High Fellowship group of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the Peace Light Inn following the Easter sunrise service for breakfast.

Mrs. Olin Waite, Miss Ruth Aiken and Mrs. Florence Manning visited overnight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aiken, E. Lincoln Ave. They are enroute from Florida to their home in Lockport, N. Y.

Miss Suzanne Mickley, a graduate student at the University of Delaware, Newark, is spending Easter at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mickley, Cashtown.

2 Countians Take Penn State Course

Two Adams County men were among 29 men and women who completed today the Dairy Cattle Herdmen short course at the Pennsylvania State University at State College.

Marvin E. Brown, Gettysburg R. 1, and R. Glenn Snyder, Gettysburg R. 2, have completed the five-day course, offered by the College of Agriculture and designed for herdsmen wishing to review or to secure new and current information on subjects relating to dairy farm management. Dairy cattle breeding, feeding, and management involving milk production, calf raising, soils, forages, pastures and record keeping were covered in the course.

Is Operated Upon At Elizabethtown

Miss Joy Fair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fair Jr., 645 S. Washington St., underwent the first of a series of operations Tuesday at the Elizabethtown Children's Hospital.

The 15-year-old high school sophomore has been a patient at the hospital since August 18. According to word received by her parents Thursday her "post-operative condition is satisfactory." Since her admission to Elizabethtown, Miss Fair has been named editor of the newspaper published by the students there.

Wedding

Ayre-Tozer

The marriage of Miss Louise A. Tozer, of Camp Hill, and James W. Ayre, Harrisburg, took place recently in Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Martin L. Tozer, Camp Hill. Mr. Ayre is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ayre, Harrisburg.

Mrs. Ayre is a graduate of Camp Hill High School, Linden Hall Junior College at Lititz, and is a dietitian at the Osteopathic Hospital of Harrisburg.

Her husband was graduated from John Harris High School and Gettysburg College. He is employed by the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co.

CAT HOSTESS TO PETS NETS POLIO FUNDS

SANTEE FE, N. M. (AP) — A goldfish with a $10 bill.

A poodle flying in from Dallas with a check for $150.

The billygoat that ate his hat.

It sounds like something out of "Alice in Wonderland"—a jet-age Mad Hatter party.

But it's only the annual Animal Tea Party given by a 12-year-old yellow cat named Rufus.

Rufus, says his mistress, Lorraine Carr, doesn't give the party for fun. In the last five years, Rufus' animal parties for the March of Dimes have produced $3,000 and an iron lung.

Miss Carr is a columnist for the Santa Fe New Mexican. Rufus, a purebred, 16-pound Persian who hates fish, belonged to an artist who gave the animal away. Rufus finally wound up at Miss Carr's door.

"I took him in to feed him," five years ago and just 10 days after I buried my husband. The cat and I were both lonely."

She didn't mean to keep him, "but after he ate, he came to the fireplace where I sat and put his paws around my neck and purred as if he might beg. His paws have been around my neck ever since."

Personal Interest

Miss Carr had a special reason to be interested in the March of Dimes.

"I lost my little boy and only child with polio many years and many tears ago."

Rufus' mistress always wanted to fight polio. "But I was a poor gal and only could do publicity for the drive."

Then someone sent Rufus a Christmas card with a $1 bill inside. Miss Carr was sitting with friends when she opened it. She announced that Rufus' dollar would go to the polio drive.

The friends started a collection—from their pets to Rufus—right there and collected $80.

Miss Carr started listing the names of pets who donated to the drive in her column. That year, she collected $279.

The next year, the Animal Tea Party began.

"It was a snowy day, but here came school kids with dogs dressed in blue jeans like ball players, or like clowns."

There was a pet rooster; a goldfish in a bowl that brought $10; a donkey tied outside with another $10; cats, dogs and pet turtles."

Mops Not Required

The following year, the tea party was moved to the big La Fonda Hotel, when the hotel management sighed, "O.K. Lorraine, you can have the Santa Fe Room and we'll send a mopping crew in behind you."

Miss Carr proudly reports no mishaps at all so far "and not a single fight."

A guest of honor that year was Little Folk, a French poodle flown in from Dallas with a $160 check from her owners, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Morten.

Santa Fe service clubs presented Rufus with a portable iron lung, which Rufus donated to the county.

Other guests on Rufus' list of friends have included squirrels, monkeys, rabbits—and the billygoat that ate his straw hat and ruined his appetite for the refreshments.

Refreshments usually consist of dog biscuits for the pups, catnip for the feline guests, and to the others according to their tastes.

For the chaperons, only one dish is in style. Coffee and—what else?—animal crackers.

Blowers Run Out Of Glass, Quit

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Lorow brothers, for eight years a tourist attraction as glass blowers, have joined the ranks of the unemployed.

Curtz, 51; Nat, 46, and Bert, 44, hung up their blowpipes and put out the fires in their ovens in the face of high taxes and mounting costs of materials.

"We had free admission and drew as many as 1,000 people a day," said Curtz, "but we couldn't produce enough working by hand to keep going."

"So now we're 'at liberty' and looking for a spot as a side at-

REQUESTS DATA ON ELECTION IN LITTLE ROCK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Omar Burleson (D-Tex) of the House Administrative Committee, has asked for any information uncovered at Little Rock in a federal investigation of the election of Rep. Alford (D-Ark).

An aide said Burleson asked U.S. Dist. Atty. Osro Cobb at Little Rock to forward any information that might be helpful to the committee which will consider the possibility of an investigation of the election.

The committee's decision on whether to order a congressional inquiry may be made at a meeting scheduled for April 15.

Oxford Beats Brooks

Alford, Little Rock segregationist, defeated former Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark), civil rights moderate, by 1,900 votes after a last minute write-in campaign.

Subsequently John Wells, Little Rock weekly newspaper publisher, charged there were irregularities in the election.

When Congress began its new session an objection was made to Alford taking his seat. However, Alford was seated under a resolution which authorized but did not direct the Burleson committee to make an investigation.

POPULATION ONE MAKES IT IDEAL PLACE

MOUNT MISERY, N. J. (AP)

—Bachelor Freeman Taylor has moved to this woodland area where there aren't any people because Upton Station got too crowded.

Upton Station, which is in the woods about 16 miles east of Mount Holly, N. J., has a population of four.

But, figured Taylor, there's a housing development about 10 miles away from Upton Station, and who knows when somebody might build closer.

Then, too, the railroad track through Upton Station was getting busy. Sometimes three trains a week go through.

Prefers Animals

Taylor just had to move: he likes animals more than people.

Two years ago he was able to buy four acres of privately owned land which stand in the middle of the 20,000-acre Lebanon State Forest.

And in his spare time, he built a two-bedroom ranch house on Mount Misery. Ideal for a real New Jersey woodsman who needs acres of pine around him.

Taylor's new home has more deer, more trees and more room for his 35 pet dogs to run. It also has more rattlesnakes, which Taylor plans to catch and sell for $5 apiece.

But more than anything, Mount Misery has only one resident. For Freeman Taylor that's not misery at all.

DEATH

Edward F. Lawrence

Edward F. Lawrence, 74, West Philadelphia, died at his home Monday.

A son of the late William G. and Amelia Yake Lawrence, he was a former employee of Gimbel Bros. He was a member of the Church of the Transfiguration, Philadelphia, and of Hanover Lodge 871, Knights of Columbus.

Surviving are two sisters and a brother: Miss M. Blanche Lawrence, Philadelphia; Mrs. Thomas Eck, Dallastown, and Arthur Lawrence, Newton Square.

Funeral services Wednesday with prayers at the Walter Funeral Home, McSherrystown, at 8:15 a.m., followed by a requiem mass at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Conewago, at 8:45 a.m.

The Rev. John P. Bolen will be celebrant. Burial in the parish cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Boys In Cub Pack Finish Easter Work

Members of Den 1, Cub Pack 160, Thursday afternoon completed their Easter work by making gifts for the Primary Department of the Christ Lutheran Church Sunday School and making gifts for Thomas Roth, a Gettysburg polio victim hospitalized at Elizabethtown Children's Hospital.

Under leadership of two den mothers, Mrs. Donald Carver and Mrs. Craig Dayton, the members, Harry Dick, Larry Carver, Eugene Corwell, Alfred Heikinen, Jay Baker and Craig Dayton made a large number of small colored Easter baskets of paper and placed a cotton rabbit in each basket to be distributed Sunday morning to the youngsters in the Primary Sunday School.

They also made a huge cotton and cardboard rabbit, a huge "look into" egg, a "space ship," a canoe, a puzzle and other gifts to be sent to the Roth youngster for Easter.

Class No. 3 of the Bendersville Methodist Church will hold a sale of chicken corn soup and baked goods on Saturday morning beginning at 9 o'clock at Bucher's Restaurant, Bendersville. Persons desiring soup are asked to bring containers.

John Scholtzhauer, a student at Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, is spending the Easter recess with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. Earl Scholtzhauer, Idaville.

The Luther League of Flohr's Lutheran Church, McKnightstown, will not meet Sunday evening.

Donald B. Shetter, Biglerville, is attending a tire school in Akron, Ohio, this week.

A play "My Son Lives" by members of Christ Lutheran Church will feature an Easter program to be given by the Young People's Department of Christ Lutheran Sunday School, Aspers, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

COPS DIRECT, DRUNKS STAR IN MOVIES

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Tucson Police Department is in the movie business, but the department's film stars don't get paid. Usually they wind-up paying.

The department began making movies of persons arrested for drunk driving last summer. So far 36 films have been made. The films have helped obtain 32 convictions for drunken driving. The remaining cases are awaiting final action.

The "movie set" used by the police is a narrow passageway in the police station.

Police Lt. Kenneth C. Yeazel is director, cameraman and sound engineer. The camera is focused on the hallway, sound equipment is adjusted, floodlights turned on and the film is rolled as the suspected drunken driver comes "onstage."

The cast is small — usually the motorist and a questioning officer.

Tongue Twisters

The script seldom varies. The driver is asked to pronounce: Methodist, Episcopal and electricity.

If he gets by those tongue twisters, he is given a run-through on: "Around the rugged rock the ragged rascal ran."

Usually, police note, the suspect does a little ad libbing. To spice things a bit, the suspect is asked to walk a straight line, close his eyes and touch the tip of his nose with his finger

CARE INSURES LONG SEWING MACHINE LIFE

By DOROTHY ROE

The Associated Press.

Were you one of the lucky women who received a sewing machine for Christmas? If so, you will want to learn at the start how to keep it in tip-top shape to give you sewing pleasure for many years.

A sewing machine, like any other fine piece of equipment, requires a bit of care and conditioning to do its best work. For women who received a new machine, here are tips on care and cleaning from the experts at your local sewing center.

Always keep your sewing machine covered between sewing sessions, to protect it from dust. Keep attachments in a box. The newest sewing machine models come equipped with a specially designed plastic box with special sections for individual attachments, oil, stitch pattern discs, and the instruction booklet.

Storing Machine

When the machine is not in use, it is a good idea to let the presser foot down on a scrap of cloth, to help the tension stay at proper adjustment, and to take up any excess oil. When storing machine for several months remove dust and lint and oil before storing to prevent rust damages caused by moisture-holding lint.

Proper cleaning is important to a sewing machine. The bobbin case is a favorite lodging place for dust and lint. A special lint brush may be obtained at local sewing centers, and this should be used to keep the machine free of lint. Remove bobbin and bobbin case, and clear away all foreign matter. Some of the newer sewing machines have a drop-in bobbin, which is very easy to remove and replace.

Keep It Clean

Also brush between the tension discs and under the head of the machine. A good feature of several of the most popular sewing machines is the removable cover on the under side of the machine. This cover helps keep the moving parts clean and free of dust.

After all lint has been removed, refer to the instruction booklet which comes with your machine for points to oil. Place a tiny drop of oil in all oil holes and wherever there is movement of parts. You will find oiling parts in such places as the bobbin winder, near the bobbin case, on the head of the machine, inside the face plate where the needle mechanism is located, and underneath the machine. Automatic machines will also need occasional oiling around the mechanisms that operate the zigzag movement of the needle on an automatic machine with a stitch chart, oilings recommended in area underneath the stitch chart. Apply only one drop of oil in each of the holes and don't oil too heavily.

Too much is wasteful, and will collect dust. Be sure to use the right kind of oil, especially suited to sewing machines.

Some portions of the machine, such as the gears requiring lubrication rather than oiling. Follow directions in your instruction book for this.

After cleaning and oiling, test machine for correct tension, pressure and stitch adjustment. If you own a zigzag machine, test several of the stitches to make sure this part of the machine is working correctly.

With good care, your sewing machine will give you years of faithful service.

Fairfield Brothers Meet In California

Two Fairfield brothers who have not seen each other for more than two years were able to spend four days together recently in California. The two are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kuykendall, Fairfield R. 1, and are in the service.

Airman Kenneth F. Kuykendall notified his parents that while being transferred from Olathe, Kan., to the U.S.S. Lexington at San Francisco, Calif., he was able to visit his brother, A-2C Norman Kuykendall at Mather Air Force Base, Sacramento, Calif. Norman enlisted in the Air Force May 31, 1956, and Kenneth enlisted last May 29. Both are graduates of Fairfield Joint High School.

Kenneth will be stationed in Japan for two years. His address will be Kenneth F. Kuykendall, AA 524-46-09, V-3 Division, U.S.S. Lexington (CVA-16), care of FPO, San Francisco, Calif.

and pick a few coins off the floor. Each film costs the city about $12.

Although the films are admissible as courtroom evidence, none has been shown in court. "The need hasn't arisen," said Yeazel.

He explained that attorneys for the 36 drivers filmed by police were given "sneak previews." In each case, he said, none of the attorneys pleaded innocent for their clients.

Save Remnants Of Early Western Fort Which Was Active In Civil War Days

By STEVE LOWELL
LAS VEGAS, N. M. (AP) — Wind, never ceasing, rain, and time have erased most of Fort Union.

But a few scoured remnants have been saved to remind Americans of their storied pioneer heritage.

In a wide grassed valley, studied with fat beef cattle and still scarred with the century old ruins of the Santa Fe Trail, the ragged-toothed ruins jut up.

For 40 years, starting in 1851, Fort Union was the largest supply depot in the Southwest. Early in its history, it was the only place between Missouri and Santa Fe where a stagecoach passenger could find a bed.

Brief Active Life
By 1891 the need for a fort was gone. The Santa Fe Railway was carrying passengers over the once risky route through Indian country, and the big frontier post was abandoned.

Gradually wind and snow and rain worked through the protective adobe coat on the massive warehouses and the rows of barracks and officers' quarters.

Sixty-five years went by, and most of the mud walls with their decorative and protecting cornices of brick had fallen. From a distance, across the wide valley north of the village of Watrous, the remains stood in ranks like monuments for the men who had been there — men like Burnside, U. S. Grant and Col. Kit Carson, who commanded the fort in 1865, while the others were farther east taking part in the final throes of the Civil War.

Erosion Halted
Finally, two years ago, the efforts of a group of public-minded residents of Las Vegas and the rest of New Mexico came to realization. The old fort became a national monument and the National Park Service set about saving what was left.

Today the walks lining the 1,500-foot-long parade ground, the five miles of main walls and cross-walls, of the whole fort are being patched so weather cannot melt them further.

Now the visitor can follow well-marked trails lined with signs to explain what Col. E. V. Sumner directed to be built there more than 100 years ago.

With a little imagination they can rebuild this monumental fort, started only five years after the bloodiest conquest of New Mexico by Gen. Stephen Kearny in the War with Mexico.

Civil War Battle
Just 11 years later, troops from the fort, under Col. J. P. Slough, fought a little-known Civil War battle about 70 miles southwest of the post, at Glorieta Pass, near Apache Canyon.

A Texas column led by Gen. Henry Sibley was headed for the silver mines of Colorado. The South needed money. The Confederate force held the upper hand over Slough's Union troops after two days of fighting. But Sibley's hopes faded when another Union force, led by Maj. J. M. Chivington, destroyed the Confederate supply column.

After the retreat of the Texas column down the Rio Grande, the troops at Fort Union returned to their earlier chores, supplying satellite forts and guarding Santa Fe Trail travelers from Indians.

At last, in 1876, starved because the southern buffalo herd had been killed off, the Plains tribes gave up. The Comanches and Kiowas who had raided the historic trail for 50 years settled down on reservations.

Activity at the fort waned, the railway reached Las Vegas in 1879, the huge fort was reduced to caretaker status in the 1880s, and then the last troops moved out in 1891.

Then wind and rain began their ravages.

BURY MRS. WEIKERT

Funeral services for Mrs. Dorothy M. (Lisman) Weikert, 54, wife of David C. Weikert, New Oxford, who died Tuesday evening in the Hanover Hospital, were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Fred F. Feiler Funeral Home in New Oxford. The services were private and were conducted by the Rev. Fr. Philip J. Gergen of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of New Oxford. Interment was made in the church cemetery. The funeral mass will be said Saturday, April 11. The pallbearers were Henry Weikert, John W. Wolf, Francis W. Hertz, Timothy Noel, Gordon Rutter and Dwight E. Kessell.

"WE HOLD THE SPEAR"

Many stories have been written . . . on the spear that pierced Christ's heart . . . and of him who held the weapon . . . as the devil did his part . . . all of which brings to my thinking . . . how we all are guilty of . . . opening the wounds He harbored . . . with His endless wondrous love . . . now, as then, mankind forsakes Him . . . by the evil things we do . . . always seeking His forgiveness . . . which He gives to me and you . . . oh, my Jesus, we're unworthy . . . of the blessings You bestow . . . for we only seek Your guidance . . . when our hearts are cloaked with woe . . . but we cry deep down inside us . . . knowing that we hold the spear . . . we implore You, take it from us . . . banish all our doubt and fear.

MAN AND MULE POWER IN USE IN COAL MINE

By DAVID C. BEEDER

DU BOIS, Ill. (AP) — Picks and shovels, old fashioned lanterns and mule-powered coal cars still are standard equipment in the Du Bois No. 6 mine, the oldest in Illinois.

The 300-foot deep mine has changed little since it was dug in 1865 to supply fuel for steam locomotives.

Mules drag loaded coal cars to the shaft head. An ancient steam boiler provides power to bring the load to the surface. There is no modern machinery and no electricity.

Miners work by the glow of open-flame carbide lamps which are hooked to their helmets. A pick and a shovel are their only tools. They bring up about 100 tons of coal a day.

No Machinery
"We can't afford to convert to Waligorski said. "It would cost a million dollars to put machinery in this little mine."

Waligorski is secretary-treasurer of the miners' cooperative company which operates the Du Bois mine for owner J. W. Schwind, a retired farmer with land holdings in the southern Illinois "area around Du Bois." Under the cooperative plan, the 29 miners employed in No. 6 are paid a salary based on mine earnings. Officers of the cooperative are elected annually. Waligorski works as a miner by day and a bookkeeper by night.

"We make a profit but we put most of it back in the mine," Waligorski said. "We are just able to hold our own."

Winter Operation
The mine operates in winter only. In summer the miners work as farmers.

Six mules provide motive power for the mine railway. Getting them into the shaft is tricky work because the brutes are nearly as big as the shaft opening. The animals have been trained to take a sitting position and remain docile while they are maneuvered through the opening. Once in the pit they seem content.

Waligorski and his miners believe they have one of the safest mines in the country. "There are no gases; we have a firm top and no slides," he said.

Girl Scout News

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 44 of St. James Lutheran Church visited the Pape Convalescent Home Thursday. Each patient received a handmade Easter basket from the troop. After distributing the gifts the girls assembled on the steps and sang Lenten songs. Leaders and troop committee mothers were Mrs. Arthur Phil Jr., Mrs. John Caldwell, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. Walter Coshun and Mrs. Harold Bucher.

BARTOW, Fla. (AP) — Mrs. C. L. Anderson, whose hair hadn't been touched by scissors in 12 years, got an unscheduled bob.

She reached for a bottle of vinegar to rinse her 42-inch-long locks after she finished giving herself a shampoo. By accident, she grasped a bottle of pine oil floor cleaner. Her hair was a sticky mess before she realized what had happened.

She consulted several beauty parlors but none of the prepara-

Has Easter Outfits For Any Weather

NEW YORK (AP) — Whatever the weather on Easter Sunday, Mamie Eisenhower has suitable outfits.

If it is cool, the first lady will wear a mauve wool dress-and-jacket costume designed by Mollie Parnis, and a hat made entirely of violets designed by Sally Victor.

If the day is warm Mrs. Eisenhower will wear a dress-and-jacket outfit of black and white geometric silk print and a little white hat trimmed with a roll of the same print.

OBJECTION TO KIDS CAUSES FATAL ATTACK

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) — Joseph Roy Troyer, 38, went apartment hunting last week in Mount Clemens.

The last place he inquired was at a roominghouse where Mary Douglas, 84, a great grandmother was caretaker. Troyer, the father of two children, says she told him, "Oh, we don't allow children here."

"I guess I went berserk," Troyer told police Thursday. "It made me mad because I had heard the same thing everywhere. You can have cats and dogs, but no kids. I hit her with my open hand and knocked her down. She yelled at me to get out, that she was going to call the police. When she said the word 'police,' I went after her."

Didn't Mean To Kill
"I picked up an object and started beating her. I didn't intend to kill her, though."

Mrs. Douglas died of head injuries two days later in a hospital.

Troyer, an ex-convict and former gravel digger, was arrested after police learned he had visited the house on the day of the attack, March 17. He at first confessed the slaying without giving a motive, then repudiated his statement.

After arraignment on a charge of common law murder, which does not specify degree, Troyer gave police his explanation.

Woman Hitchhiker Is Killed On U.S. 30
LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — An auto today killed a 25-year-old woman hitchhiker on the Lincoln Highway, six miles east of here. Killed instantly was Mrs. Jeanette Dunn of Fabyan, Conn. Officers said the woman was wearing dark clothing and it was raining at the time of the accident. Police quoted Mrs. Dunn's mother, Mrs. Elsie P. Sorel, also of Fabyan, as saying that Mrs. Dunn was separated from her husband, had hitchhiked to the West Coast and apparently was headed home.

Harrisburg Man Weds Jap, Suicides
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Herbert G. Rupp of Harrisburg, Pa., a 60-year-old American engineer who married a young Japanese 10 days ago, was found burned to death in the courtyard of his house here early today.

Police said he left a note saying: "My life was miserable and I am committing suicide on my own accord."

The note said also that his money and property were to go to his 28-year-old Japanese wife.

It was Rupp's second marriage. He had been here for a year working with the U.S. Army Engineers on a construction project.

Police recommended would remove the pine oil. At last she gave up and submitted to the shears. Now her hair is two inches long.

Female Figurer's Research Is Aid In Spaceship Design

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — To talk with Olga Taussky Todd about the thing she knows best you need at least four years of advanced study in an exotic language—the hieroglyphics of higher mathematics.

Dr. Todd, 52, is widely regarded as the outstanding woman mathematician in the United States. For 10 years a math consultant for the National Bureau of Standards in Washington, she came to the California Institute of Technology a year ago for special research in numbers.

That's right, just plain numbers, like 2 or 10 or 4,579,321. But she uses them in a special way—to help design airplanes and spaceships. Much of her work is classified as top secret.

Husband Teaches
You can talk to her husband, Prof. John Todd, on a more earthly level. He's a mathematician, too, but he teaches, and understands the limitations of average mortals.

Olga Todd also finds some time for teaching, but she starts with Ph.D.'s.

"I'm working with two youngsters now," she says, "who may turn out to be quite brilliant. I'm very fond of them."

You get the impression her fondness is that of an electronic computer for the baby computers at her feet. One mistake, and bloop! Back they go to the laboratory to learn how to become good little computers.

She's Slender
The comparison isn't exactly fair. Olga Todd is human. She's slender and dark-haired, and you wouldn't be able to tell her from the other women at the corner market—until she got to the cash register. She'd have the exact change laid out on the counter before the checker punched his first key.

Numbers have been Olga's life since the day she first succumbed to what she calls the "music of mathematics" as a schoolgirl in her home town, Olomouc, Czechoslovakia. She was 15 then.

Nine years later she won her Ph.D. at the University of Vienna.

Her father had died in the meantime and she spent her last year in school doing odd jobs to pay her way.

Proud Now
"I hated it then," she recalls, "but I'm very proud now that I had to do some practical work. One job—and here her nose wrinkles as she says it—was"

News From Nearby Counties

FRANKLIN COUNTY
Concerned over 51 fire alarms so far this month, Waynesboro Fire Chief Orlov E. Helm placed a ban on rubbish burning in a borough and called attention to a borough ordinance that provides for fines for violations of trash burning rules. He said that most of the alarms were for field, brush and woods fires, all of which resulted from careless burning of grass and rubbish.

Sparks from a trash fire ignited a small barn on the Marvin O. Ogle property, Waynesboro R. 2, Thursday and three milk goats perished in the ensuing fire.

YORK COUNTY
The York County School Board Thursday night in a resolution called on the state to use "demonstration of reasonable progress" as a standard of compliance for its order for school fire safety improvement. One board member said: "A crash program has never done any good. To rush into a thing like this means that we'll end up with another mess of junk."

One hundred chickens died in a fire that destroyed a two-story frame barn at Yoe this morning. A passing motorist spotted the blaze and sounded the alarm.

10 Local Nurses At District Meet

Ten Adams County nurses were among 70 from the Adams, Franklin, Fulton District who attended a meeting of registered nurses in the area Tuesday at Harrisburg to urge public support of a bill now in the legislature which would assure the nurses of the right to bargain collectively with hospital employers. The bill has the backing of the Pennsylvania Nurses' Association.

Elizabeth Vanden Bossche, area director of the nurses' association, presided at the meeting at the Harrisburg YWCA. The nurses from seven counties were addressed by Miss Kathryn Grove, legislative representative, and Attorney Robert Maurer, their legal counsel. Miss Grove said many hospitals now refuse to discuss problems with their nurses.

The local group attending included Elizabeth Hughes, Dorothy Martin, Charlotte Tate, Barbara Myers, Dorothy Orner, Rosa Stoner, Josephine Delp, Loretta Sprankle, Creta Jacobs and Jean Anthony.

Slashed Huge Fund
The House Appropriations Committee deleted from the Interior Department Budget for fiscal 1960 funds requested by the Administration for land acquisition at Civil War battlefields. A total of $125,000 had been requested with the bulk scheduled for use at Gettysburg and Manassas. Gettysburg had been picked because a large parcel of land must go up for auction this year if the federal government cannot purchase it, while Manassas land was needed to ready the battlefield for the 100th anniversary of the battle in 1961. The full House approved its Committee recommendation by a voice vote.

Senator Clark asked for extended hearings on the Interior appropriation, while representative Quigley made a public appeal late last week for letters to be written to the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Senator Hugh Scott is also pressing for restoration of the fund.

ABC BUYS WEST COAST NETWORK

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Broadcasting Co. has purchased the big Don Lee radio network on the West Coast.

The purchase becomes effective April 26, under terms of a contract signed Thursday.

The Don Lee system has 34 stations and is radio's largest regional network. It will cease to exist as a separate organization once the merger becomes effective.

The network, with stations in California, Oregon and Washington, was established in 1928 and named for its founder.

The ABC purchase does not include three Don Lee-owned stations, in San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Many Want To Run Havana Casinos

HAVANA (AP) — Licenses to run Havana's gambling casinos are at a premium.

Business at the tables hasn't been so good—and taxes are high — but this hasn't discouraged would-be operators.

Pastora Nunez, who is in charge of regulating the gambling parlors, told a television audience Thursday night she has a long list of applicants.

There have been rumors that American gangsters — supposedly driven out after the fall of President Fulgencia Batista—are moving back into the casinos. But Mrs. Nunez said that the background of all operators is minutely investigated. The revolutionary government bars anyone with a criminal record.

4,000 START LONDON MARCH TO BAN BOMB

By PETER GROSE

ALDERMASTON, England (AP) — More than 4,000 men and women assembled in carnival mood outside Britain's main nuclear arsenal here today and began a 50-mile march to London, carrying banners demanding a ban on the hydrogen bomb.

A jazz band blared Dixieland music while the marchers, some pushing baby carriages and others leading dogs, formed up in a rain-swept field and started trudging out of this quiet village in the Thames Valley.

Police On Hand
"Let us go on marching until we have brought an end to this nuclear insanity," shouted black-robed Canon John Collins of St. Paul's Cathedral. He is a leader of the British campaign for nuclear disarmament which is staging the demonstration as a repeat of the London - to - Aldermaston march which ended last Easter in a flurry of flying fists.

This time the atmosphere was more placid.

Squads of police were on hand in case demonstrations were staged by supporters of Britain's decision to rely on nuclear weapons as the main deterrent against aggression.

The marchers — university students, middle-aged couples and bearded artists with their families — are due Monday at a rally in Trafalgar Square in the heart of London.

BRUCE CATTON

Quigley. "The tone of them is similar to Bruce Catton's which states, 'I sincerely hope that the proposed appropriation to enable the National Park Service to acquire land at certain Civil War battlefields goes through.'"

In his appeal to have the Senate restore House-deleted funds for Civil War battlefield land acquisition, Quigley pointed out the South should be particularly interested in the additional land desired for the Park. "In one section," he declared, "land occupied and fought over by men of Texas, Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and Virginia units is now occupied by a line of souvenir shops, garages, beer parlors and trailer courts. The famous Peach Orchard is surrounded on three sides by private holdings which could be used for commercial developments and one famous hill on the Union right is now a junkyard and garage dump."

The House Appropriations Committee deleted from the Interior Department Budget for fiscal 1960 funds requested by the Administration for land acquisition at Civil War battlefields. A total of $125,000 had been requested with the bulk scheduled for use at Gettysburg and Manassas. Gettysburg had been picked because a large parcel of land must go up for auction this year if the federal government cannot purchase it, while Manassas land was needed to ready the battlefield for the 100th anniversary of the battle in 1961. FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Biglerville Girl Cured By New Drug Here: Miss Edith Miller, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Biglerville R. 2, was discharged from the Warner hospital Saturday afternoon after recovering from a blood stream infection that up to a year ago would in all probability have proved fatal.

Dr. Raymond Hale, Arendtsville, her physician, said today that the newly developed medical treatment which has come forth during the last year, could be credited with saving her life. Many others have been cured by the new treatment in the last six months, according to medical journals.

Miss Miller was the first Adams county ever to be treated with the new drug, penicillin, which was recently developed and which appears to be a remedy for some diseases previously believed to be incurable.

Closing Shop To Go In Navy: The Hotel Eberhart barber shop in the basement of the hotel building at the corner of North Washington and Chambersburg streets, will close its doors "until Victory" Wednesday evening with the proprietor Harold V. Cromwell and Lester P. Davis, employed there as a barber, planning to return after the war and go into business again at the old stand. Mr. Cromwell, who resides at 816 West Middle street, has volunteered for duty in the Navy and both he and Mr. Davis, who is being inducted, have received orders to report for Navy duty next Monday. Davis has two children and Cromwell one son.

Local Captain Is Married In South Tuesday: Announcement was made today of the marriage of Captain Edmund W. Thomas Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas Sr., West Lincoln avenue, to Miss Mary Ruth King, daughter of Mrs. J. C. Donahoe and the late J. R. King, of Frostproof, Florida, on Tuesday morning.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Lieutenant Philip Joseph, USNRC, in the First Baptist church at Fort Pierce, Florida.

Minutemen Reorganize To Offset Draft: With 30 men already called into the armed forces, the Adams County Minutemen were reorganized at a meeting Friday evening at the armory with new noncommissioned officers named to fill the ranks of those called into service.

The company under the command of Capt. C. Arthur Brame, at one time numbered 110 men. Now it has been reduced to 60 men and four officers.

New sergeants named Friday include A. P. Markle, New Oxford; Louis Chamberlain, Gettysburg; Amos Kuhn, Abbottstown, and Clarence Deardorff, McKnightstown.

County WAC Is First In Hawaii: First Sergeant E. Romaine Delp, Woman's Army Corps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Delp, of Idaville, was a member of the first company of WACS to arrive in Hawaii.

Dr. T. C. Miller Is Honored By Club At Dinner: Dr. T. C. Miller, a practicing physician in Abbottstown for nearly 55 years, was the honored guest at the banquet Wednesday evening in the basement of Emmanuel Reformed church, Abbottstown, by the Civic Club of Abbottstown of which he is a member. The banquet was held on Dr. Miller's seventy-ninth birthday anniversary.

7th Member Of Family Called Into Service: On Monday morning, April 3, the seventh of the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clapsaddle, Gettysburg R. 1, will enter the armed forces. The couple also have two sons-in-law in the Navy.

Harold Clinton Clapsaddle, 34, has volunteered for service in the Navy and has been directed to

Today's Talk

YOUR OTHER SELF

Most of us have a collection of SELVES to whom we may pay homage, or not. It depends upon how many selves we WANT. We ought to get along with all of our many selves, but, knowing ourselves better than anyone else in the world, we had best pay attention to our favorite self, for that's the one that most influences our life and happiness.

This favorite self gives to us our richest experiences, and knows us best. It's the one we are sure to favor most, and it's the one that most influences us toward our friends and loved ones. Our best self helps us to get away from our selves that trouble us and keep misjudging us. When we experience unhappiness, it's because we don't loan out that best self of ours, giving us the opportunity to understand our best self.

That other self of yours is the one that stays closest to you through life and forgives you most and most fairly. A friend with gold in his heart. God meant for us all to be more happy than unhappy. Put that other self in charge and that is what will happen!

Our very health depends upon cheerfulness and kindness — and understanding on the part of ourselves and others, as well. We must carry love around with us, as our choicest possession. Do you recall that line in the Bible — "Charity suffereth long — and is kind?" There is no more inspiring statement than this: God is love.

GOOD FRIDAY

No word of bitterness He speaks,
No cry of anguish 'scapes His lips;
The blush of life fades from His cheeks,
The cup of gall He meekly sips.

Upper the cross He suffers now,
Beneath Him is the laughing throng;
The crown of thorns is on His brow;
How dark the day, and oh, how long!

Sweet spirit to be tortured so!
Blind ignorance that drives the nails!
When shall the earth another know
Like Him Whom man today assails?
"Father, forgive them all, I pray,
Poor men, they know not what they do!"
And then His spirit passed away.
All this endured for me and you.

Oh, bitter day! Oh, holy day!
Oh, glorious symbol of the cross;
Now doubt and anguish pass away
And unto gain is changed our loss.

The mocking throng has ceased to sneer,
The crown of thorns is one of gold;
The cup of gall is water clear,
Eternal joy has been foretold.

LIZ TAYLOR CONVERTED TO JUDAISM

By JOHN BECKLER

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor has been converted to Judaism, the faith of her late husband, Mike Todd, and of Eddie Fisher, the handsome singer she is expected to marry.

Although the English-born beauty, formerly a Protestant, apparently had been considering the step for more than two years, her decision caught Hollywood by surprise.

Friends Surprised
Friends and colleagues — even her agent — knew nothing of her conversion and the long studies that preceded it until it was announced late Thursday night in a brief press release issued by Temple Israel of Hollywood.

A spokesman for the Temple, where the ceremony was performed Thursday in the presence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, said the announcement was made at Miss Taylor's request. Conversions are not normally announced, he said.

The 27-year-old actress apparently first decided to embrace Judaism at the time she married Mike Todd Feb. 2, 1957. Todd, born Avram Goldbogen, was the son of a rabbi.

"Very Intelligent"
Rabbi Max Nussbaum, who conducted the simple rites, said the death of Todd in a plane crash March 22, 1958, intensified her desire to enter the Jewish faith.

"She was a good pupil," the rabbi said. "She has a good understanding of Jewish life and has read extensively in Jewish history. She is very intelligent."

It was during the period of the actress' studies that her romance with Fisher flared into the headlines. Their widely publicized dates in New York City led to a breakup of Fisher's marriage to Debbie Reynolds and Fisher has been seen constantly with Miss Taylor since his divorce.

Good Friday Drama To Be Presented

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The faithful of the Christian world followed the Way of the Cross on this Good Friday.

In the Jordan section of Jerusalem, pilgrims and tourists of many lands attended services at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Hundreds toiled up Jerusalem's narrow streets on the way to the Cross on Calvary where Jesus Christ was crucified.

Tenebrae services marking the death of Christ drew thousands of pilgrims to St. Peter's in Rome. Pope John XXIII, after taking part in services at Rome's Santa Croce Church, finished work on his Easter message, to be delivered to the world Saturday night.

Good Friday services were held in thousands of Protestant and Roman Catholic services in all Christian countries.

American evangelist Billy Graham delivered a Good Friday message to 8,000 persons standing in the rain on a beach at Broadbeach, Australia.

Bums' Benefactor Is Given A Break

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn tavern owner who played Santa Claus to Bowers bums in the form of $20 bills got a break Thursday on a federal income tax evasion charge. He was fined instead of going to jail.

The tavern operator, Joseph Bonavita, now 51, handed out so much money — $3,500 — on Christmas Eve in 1946 that he was committed to Bellevue Hospital for psychiatric examination.

Later he was released and, until a few years ago, made annual yuletide trips to the Bowery to distribute funds to passers-by.

Bonavita already had paid the government $36,000 to cover taxes, interest and penalties he owed for the years 1952-55.

U. S. Dist. Judge Lee F. Reyfiel ordered Bonavita to pay an additional $2,000 fine, and placed him on six months' probation.

Baby Sitter May Thrash A Child

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A baby sitter may thrash a child just as its parents would, if the sitter has their permission, Judge A. A. Nelson has decided.

Judge Nelson, a Cambria County jurist substituting here, freed Josephine Dydak, 23, Thursday on charges of beating a 5-year-old girl with a strap last Aug. 25.

Doris Di Biasi testified she gave Mrs. Dydak permission to use a strap to discipline her daughter, Theresa. The mother said the girl was stubborn and obstinate and at times uncontrollable.

The thrashing took place on Aug. 25. The next day a neighbor noticed Theresa while playing with other children. The neighbor called police who took Theresa to a hospital for treatment and arrested Mrs. Dydak.

EXTEND DRAFT EXEMPTIONS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvanians of draft age serving in Reserve and National Guard components will receive more consideration under regulation changes made by President Eisenhower.

Lt. Col. Henry M. Gross, state selective service director, said Thursday the policy will mean that men satisfactorily participating in military training programs will be draft-free as long as there are sufficient numbers of nonreservists available.

Executive Order
The presidential executive order quoted by Gross establishes that: "Men who acquire deferments or exemptions on initial entry into the National Guard or Reserve keep those deferments or exemptions on transfer to another component so long as they continue to serve satisfactorily."

"Some initial enlistments in the Reserve provide that men can discharge their military obligation by eight years of satisfactory service including not less than three months of active duty for training."

Members said they will write newspapers and friends to alert them to the need for additional land for the battlefield, and urge them to write their senators and congressmen.

George Olinger reported some winter damage to the Old Dorm at the Lutheran Theological Seminary and it was agreed to attempt to have the damage repaired before it goes further, if approval can be secured from the seminary.

It was voted to write Assemblyman rancis Worley and State Senator Douglas Elliott protesting against any effort by the legislature to close the Scotland Orphan School as an orphanage and use it for a juvenile delinquent center. It was pointed out that the Orphan school was started for orphans of soldiers of the Civil War and some of the first students there were orphans from the soldiers' orphanage here, moved to Scotland when the local orphanage was closed.

Two Children, 6, 7, Perish In Blaze

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Two children died today in a fire that swept through six homes in this community's north side.

The victims were Diane and Regina Corsey, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Corsey. The girls were 6 and 7, respectively.

Fire chief Zenas Mathis said the fire started in the Corsey home when an oil stove exploded. Corsey, the father of seven children, carried some of the youngsters to safety. But when he returned for Regina, he found that the stairway to her room had collapsed.

Five more homes were badly damaged by the rapidly-spreading flames. But there was no immediate estimate on the loss. No other casualties were reported.

The Corseys are Negroes.

BELLEfonte, Pa. (AP)—John J. Grohol, 45, of Altoona, was killed today when his car apparently went out of control and struck an underpass abutment along Route 220 at Mount Eagle, 10 miles east of here in Centre County.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Bellefonte Hospital. He was alone in the car.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon's military space chief says he's against spending huge sums on military space vehicles or a base on the moon until it's known whether man can survive space travel.

Roy W. Johnson, director of the Pentagon's Advanced Research Projects Agency, told the Senate Space subcommittee Thursday "I don't know whether a man can live up there. Until I do I'm not ready to spend millions or billions."

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—President Theodore M. Hesburgh of the University of Notre Dame plans to resign from the Civil Rights Commission Sept. 9.

Father Hesburgh said Thursday his decision should not be interpreted as dissatisfaction with the commission's work. He said the date will be "just the end of an assignment."

MOSCOW (AP)—Moscow radio said today the Soviets have built an electronic interpreter that translates a dozen or so conversations simultaneously.

"Conversations are held through microphones, the machine interpreting the discussions into the language required for each speaker," the broadcast said, adding, "Ten to 12 pairs of people can converse through the machine simultaneously."

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—Fear was expressed today that rebellious African nationalists in Nyasaland who eluded a security roundup are going underground to prepare for guerrilla warfare.

An uneasy quiet prevails in black Nyasaland after three weeks of rioting and clashes that brought death to 50 militant Africans fighting white rule. Seventy others were wounded. There were no white fatalities.

NEW YORK (AP)—A 10,000-gallon water tank collapsed Thursday atop a six-story loft building and dropped through three floors. Eleven persons were injured, at least two of them seriously.

Three iron workers were repairing the tank supports at the building on West 26th street when it came crashing down. It had been declared defective.

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Bibb County officials are trying to decide what to do about the case of a boy charged with murder in the frying pan slaying of an infant with whom he was baby sitting.

Coroner Lester H. Chapman Thursday swore out a murder warrant against Andrew Howard Jr., 11, following an inquest into the death of Mary Jane Howard, 2.

The Negro boy gave no reason for the attack upon his distant kin, Chapman said. He estimated the child was struck 12 to 15 times with a cast iron skillet.

Bullets Blank Syracuse
9-0 In Impressive Start;
Entertain Ithaca Monday

A combined two-hit shutout pitching performance by veterans Dick Hawkins and Bucky Walters, plus some solid hitting on the part of their teammates, enabled the Gettysburg College baseball team to get off to an impressive start here Thursday afternoon when the Bullets blanked Syracuse University 9-0.

Hawkins, southpaw, hurled the first six innings and was credited with the victory. He yielded but two hits, one an infield scratch, fanned eight while walking seven. Walters tossed the last three frames and did not yield a hit while fanning two and walking a pair.

The Bullets lost no time in scoring. Fred Mueller skied to left to lead off the first inning. Gerry Long drilled a single to center, advanced on Ken Fruchter's infield out, and scampered home on Larry Liedel's single to left.

Another run came in the second when Harry Binger tripled to right and tallied on Hawkins' single.

Bob Hulton's outfit wrapped up the outcome with five tallies in the third. Fruchter opened with a walk. Liedel skied to center. Jeff Kohler singled and Dick Smith singled to right sending Fruchter home. Successive walks to Harry Binger and Connie Yousse forced home Kahler and left the bases jammed, bringing on Carl Petroff to relieve starter Lorin VanKeoren for Syracuse. Hawkins forced Smith but Mueller singled home two more runs. Hawkins scoring later as Mueller stole second.

Fruchter's single, two outs and Smith's single produced another run in the fourth. The final score came in the seventh on a two-base throw by Howell on Yousse's bouncer, Walters' sacrifice and a fly to left by Mueller.

Hawkins pitched himself out of a jam in the second inning when he fanned Petroff with two out and the bases loaded via a single and two walks. Walters also had a tight squeeze with the bases loaded in the seventh via an error and two walks but he fanned Mostion and Clemens grounded to Fruchter to end the threat.

The Bullets meet powerful Ithaca here Monday at 2:30 and the next day host Villanova.

LAVAGETTO IS
70 VICTORIES

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Cookie Lavagetto has set a goal for his Washington Senators. Not first place. Not even the first division. In fact, he's not pointing at any particular spot in the standings.

"I want to hit a minimum of 70 victories," the swarthy Senator skipper said modestly. "That would give us nine more than last year."

"I think we can do it. We weren't as bad last year as the record indicates. We played fair ball until the last month of the season when the boys tired badly. I think we lost something like 13 straight in September."

Added Youth And Speed
"We have added youth and a little speed in an effort to offset this. I think we will also have a little better bench."

It is clear that Cookie is relying heavily on newcomers Reno Bertoia to make good at third, Ronnie Samford to plug the hole at shortstop and rookie Bob Allison to run a regular outfield berth.

Bertoia and Samford came from Detroit in the trade that sent Eddie Yost and Rocky Bridges to the Tigers. If Allison makes good, Roy Sievers may be switched from left field to first base, according to Lavagetto.

Much The Same Team
"Otherwise, the team is the same as the one which finished in the basement last year. Norm Zauchin is the first baseman, with Herb Plews at second, Bertoia at third and Jose Valdivielso at short, Ken Aspromonte, Bob Malkmus and Harmon Killebrew are the reserves."

Last year's No. 1 rookie Albie Pearson, sidelined with a groin injury, is expected to take over the center field spot upon his return. Bob Lemon, still not fully recovered from a knee operation, is fighting to hold off Allison and Dan Dobbel for the battle for the third outfield post. The catchers are Clint Courtney and Eddie Fitz Gerald.

The club is pitifully shy of pitching. Pete Ramos (14-18) and Camillo Pascual (8-12) are proven big league starters and Dick Hyde was just about the best relief pitcher in the American League last year.

Next—Cleveland Indians.

LAKERS, HAWKS
DEADLOCKED

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The stormy National Basketball Assn. playoff between the Minneapolis Lakers and the St. Louis Hawks was deadlocked again today and new verbal blows flew from both camps.

The Lakers survived a third-period blowup to gain a 108-96 victory Thursday night and knot the Western division final playoff at the two games apiece in the best-of-7 series.

Elgin Baylor's 32 points and defensive job on a superb but tiring Cliff Hagan in the fourth quarter put Minneapolis over the top after the Lakers lost a 19-point lead. Hagan scored 33 points but was held to 3 in the final quarter.

"What I said earlier this week still goes," said Hawks Coach Ed Macauley. "The Lakers played the same way last night that they did Sunday, pushing and shoving."

Macauley and owner Ben Kerner of the Hawks charged Monday that the Lakers were using rough-house tactics. The Lakers denied it then and they did the same today.

The Laker-Hawk series resumes Saturday night at St. Louis. Boston and Syracuse, also 2-2 in the Eastern division, play their fifth game Saturday in Boston. They were idle Thursday night.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—With all the fabulous scores that have been shot in other divisions of the 56th American Bowling Congress tournament, can the 1316 total that leads the doubles stand up?

When Bob and Glenn Gersch of Chicago assembled their total on Feb. 21, experts predicted it wouldn't last more than a week. Since then, more than 10,000 bowlers have taken a shot at the two-man title and failed.

Last year it took a 1414 total for Jim Vrenick and Bill Tucker of St. Louis to nab the two-man crown.

STU MILLER IN
CONTROVERSY

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Stu Miller, a curveballer with a three-pitch repertoire called "slow, slower and slower still," was the center of a beanball controversy today after toppling Cleveland's Vic Power in an exhibition game.

A Miller pitch hit Power on the head and knocked him unconscious momentarily in the ninth inning of San Francisco's 7-5 victory over the Indians Thursday. Hot words between the managers and a wrestling match between San Francisco's Andre Rodgers and Cleveland's Jim Bolger came in the wake of the incident, which drew these varying comments:

Mixup At Second
From Miller: "I never threw at anybody in my life. He ducked into the ball."

From Power: "He threw at me and he knows it."

Rodgers was involved when, following the incident, Bolger slammed into him at second base while breaking up a double-play attempt. While they wrestled, both benches emptied but no punches were thrown. Bolger had gone in as a pinch runner for Power, who was not injured but was taken out while breaking up a double-play attempt. In other games, Boston nipped the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in 11 innings at Scottsdale, Ariz., and in Florida, Cincinnati edged Los Angeles 2-1. Philadelphia downed Washington 5-2 at Clearwater, St. Louis whipped Milwaukee 6-3 at Bradenton, New York defeated Pittsburgh 7-2 at St. Petersburg, Detroit whipped the Chicago White Sox 5-2 at Tampa and Baltimore topped Kansas City 4-3 in 10 innings at Miami.

Big Money Winners
In $15,000 Tourney

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Seven of the year's top 15 money winners were included in a field of 138 which opened the $15,000 Azalea Open Golf Tournament today. The top man, Art Wall Jr., has pocketed $12,830 since the first of the year.

Howie Johnson, Sam Marcos, Calif., is defending his title here. Other top money makers in the field are Doug Ford, Mike Souchack, Billy Maxwell and Bob Rosburg.

After 18 holes today and Saturday the field will be cut to the low 60s and ties for the windup on Sunday and Monday.

Eye Championship
Bout Next Summer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A possible shot at Davey Moore's featherweight championship here next summer is in prospect for the winner of tonight's nationally televised, 10-round bout between Paul Jorgensen of Port Arthur, Tex., and Harold Gomes of Providence, R.I.

Promoter Chris Dundee has been in communication with Willie Ketchum, Moore's manager, concerning such a bout.

Jorgensen, the No. 2 contender, is an even choice against Gomes. Both have impressive records. Jorgensen is 75-5-4, and Gomes 42-4.

The bout at the Miami Beach Auditorium will be televised over the NBC network starting at 10 p.m. (EST)

Compete In Relays

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)—World record holder Parry O'Brien and the other three members of the exclusive "60-foot" shot putters' society headline the annual Easter relays Saturday.

Entered against O'Brien are Dallas Long, sensational freshman of the University of Southern California; Davis Davis of the Southern Cal varsity, and Bill Nieder, ex-Kansas star now in the Army.

All have put the shot 60 feet or better.

Threatened is O'Brien's world mark of 63 feet 3 inches, and most certain to fall is his record of 59 feet 9 inches set in 1956.

Nieder won the event last year and has an all-time best put of 60.3. Davis' best is 61 even.

More than 1,400 athletes will compete in high school, junior college and open divisions.

DELANY RUNS ON SATURDAY

CHICAGO (AP)—Is the time ripe for Ron Delany to run a four-minute indoor mile?

The Irish Villanova graduate student will show for his 34th straight mile victory Saturday night in the Chicago Relays at the International Amphitheater.

In the same arena and on the same broad oval, the 1956 Olympic 1,500-meter champion from Dublin last year set his first indoor mile mark of 4:03.4.

Twice he has lowered it this season—4:02.5 in the National AAU in New York Feb. 21, and 4:01.4 in the New York Knights of Columbus meet March 7.

Delany, who doesn't fight the clock, was pressed in setting his two recent records by the former Hungarian army officer, Istvan Rozsavolgyi. But Rozzy's visa has run out and he will miss the Chicago Relays.

Opposing Delany will be Phil Coleman, who has been second to the Irishman in the meet's Banker's Mile the last two years; Ted Wheeler, the 1956 winner in 4:07.5, and Ed Moran, Penn State runner who ran a 4:01.7 outdoor mile in the 1958 National AAU championships.

MAY VOID NEW JAVELIN MARK

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—A 258-foot, 4-inch javelin throw by Bill Alley helped Kansas win the Abilene Christian College invitational track and field meet Thursday but it may not be recognized as a national collegiate record.

There was 12-1/2 miles-per-hour wind at Alley's back as he bettered the record of 257 feet 1 inch set by John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran last year in the NCAA.

Oliver Jackson, coach of Abilene Christian and director of the meet, expressed some doubt that the record would be recognized because of the wind.

Kansas won the meet with comparative ease, racking up 71 1/2 points.

Alley went to Gainesville, Fla., to compete in the Florida Relays and the Kansas mile relay team, accompanied by Easton, left for Chicago to appear in the Chicago Relays.

In the meet here Abilene Christian was second with 56 1/2 points; Ohio State, third with 43; Southern Methodist, fourth with 31 1/2; Houston, fifth with 19, and Baylor, last with 15 1/2.

HADDIX HAS HOPES FOR
'59 SEASON

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—"I think I'm pitching just as well now as when I started, maybe even better, but I just can't seem to get back in stride."

Pitcher Harvey Haddix of the Pittsburgh Pirates was referring to the apparent loss of his victory formula after he had won 30 games in his first two major league seasons.

An example was Haddix's performance last year with the Cincinnati Reds. The 33-year-old southpaw had one of his poorest seasons, posting an 8-7 record and a 3.52 earned run average. This is far from the 20-9 and .38-13 records he posted in the beginning of his career.

Started With Cards
"I don't think I've lost anything," maintains Haddix. "I've gained experience along the line and I hope to reward the Pirates' faith in me by winning for them."

Haddix came up with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1953. He was traded to Philadelphia in 1956, then to the Reds in 1958. Harvey came to Pittsburgh this year in a seven-player deal with Cincinnati.

"It hasn't discouraged me any to be shifted around so much," said Haddix. "It's all in a ball player's life."

Gabe Paul, general manager of Cincinnati, still believes Haddix has his old stuff.

"Harvey pitched fine ball for Cincinnati despite the record," said Paul. "He showed a tendency to weaken in the late innings, but with a good bullpen and a fair share of luck might have won 15 games."

Simmons May Be Operated Upon
CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Southpaw Curt Simmons of the Philadelphia Phillies learns today whether he must undergo an operation for a bone chip in his left elbow.

General Manager John Quinn said he'd confer with Dr. Michael A. DiCesola, an orthopedic specialist at Sarasota, to determine whether an operation is advisable at this time.

Simmons, sidelined by a sore elbow the last three weeks of last season, had to be lifted from a game Sunday after two innings.

LIONS READY ANNUAL SHOW FOR APRIL 9

The eighth annual entertainment of the Littlestown Lions Club, TV Party Time, will be presented on Thursday, April 9, 8 p.m. in the local high school auditorium. The public is invited to attend and tickets are available from any member of the club. Tickets are 35 cents for children, 50 cents adults' general admission and 75 cents reserved seats. The reserved seating chart is on display at Marvin's Cut Rate Store, S. Queen St.

The evening's entertainment will begin with a take-off from "Stump Your Neighbor," when cash prizes will be awarded the winners. Two members of the four service clubs of the community, the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce, Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown, Rotary Club and Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity, will participate. The Rev. William R. Jones will emcee as "Dr. Stonesifer."

The second part of the program will feature "It Could Be You," with prizes and surprises for the audience. Sterling J. Wisotzkey will be master of ceremonies, portraying "Bill Leyden" and Elmer W. Gall will be his assistant as "Wendell Niles."

"Jack Paar Show" Too

Refreshments will be available during intermission following "It Could Be You."

"The Jack Paar Show" will be enacted as the remainder of the program. "Regulars" to be seen with "Jack Paar" include "Hugh Downes," the advertising assistant; "Criswell" with his predictions of the future; "Charley Weaver" and his letter from Mt. Ida; "Jose Melis," pianist and orchestra leader, and others. Along with the humorous entertainment will be selections by a romantic baritone, introduction of a new singing discovery, and numbers by "The Counts," vocal quartet of Westminster High School Seniors. "The Counts," composed of George Bartol, Allen Palmer, Charles Borchers and Glenn Bell do impersonations of popular recording artists.

Catholic Church Filled Thursday

St. Aloysius Catholic Church was filled to capacity for the Holy Thursday evening mass and the procession of the Blessed Sacrament, on the anniversary of the Institution of the Sacrament. Extra chairs were needed to take care of the worshippers. Adult converts received their first Holy Communion. The High Mass was sung by the Senior Choir, directed by Miss A. Marie Budde, with Miss Anna C. Weaver presiding at the console. The children of the school participated in the procession with 18 of the girls in the lower grades as flower girls, carrying white lilies and serving as a guard of honor for the Blessed Sacrament, carried in procession by the pastor, the Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle.

Father Boyle spoke on the Last Supper and the Institution of the Blessed Sacrament. Michael Sneringer was cross bearer and James Long and Laurence Alfio were acolytes. At the Gloria of the Mass, the bells were rung for the last time, until the Gloria of the Mass following Easter Vigil ceremonies. Nor will the organ be played until that time; all music on Good Friday and up to the Gloria of the Midnight Mass will be a cappella. The altars were stripped of candelabra and linens at the conclusion of last night's Mass and the Blessed Sacrament placed in the Repository, where members of the congregation made visits of adoration until midnight.

SELLING FLOWERS

Easter flowers are being sold by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, today starting at 4 p.m. and on Saturday beginning at 9 a.m. at the former location of Bedford's Shoe Shop, S. Queen St.

These boys and girls of the Primary Department, taught by Mrs. Warren H. Wisotzkey, will conduct an Easter quiz. The leaders will be Sandra Hull, Stephanie Gall, Carolyn Breighner, Susan Basehoar, Jean Staley, Wanda Sentz, Brian Stonesifer and Jay Evans. The children's answers will be given by Robbie Baker, Christopher Louey, Vickie Sentz, Joanne Hankey, Barbara Greason, John Roser, Robert Hoppy and Dennis Runk.

PLAN EGG HUNT

The Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown will hold a Easter egg hunt for the children of members on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the rear of the high school building on Maple Ave. In case of rain tomorrow, the egg hunt will be postponed to the following Saturday, April 4. Each member is asked to take colored eggs to the home of Mrs. Robert Morgret, 327 N. Queen St., by 11 a.m. tomorrow. The committee on arrangements for the event includes Mrs. Morgret, chairman, Mrs. Laverne P. Louey, Mrs. Edward Runk and Mrs. Woodrow D. Crabbs.

Young Men Of Redeemer's Meet

The Young Men's Bible Class of Redeemer's United Church of Christ met following the community church service on Wednesday evening, at the church. Lloyd R. Baker, president, presided and gave the opening prayer. He also reported on the sale of Easter cakes for the benefit of the class treasury. It was decided not to recorder candy for selling, for a period of time, after the present order is sold.

Announcement was made that Paul Hull is in charge of investigating the purchase of an identification light for placing in front of the parsonage on Maple Ave. Routine reports were heard from Atlee F. Rebert, secretary and John W. Hankey, treasurer. Refreshments were served by Atlee Rebert, Dr. William W. Seibert and Victor Reynolds.

The class will meet again on

DR. MAITLAND
SPEAKER FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Dr. Leah A. Maitland was speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity, held on Wednesday evening following church services in the social room of the Eagles home on West King St. The local physician, who is a veteran of the Armed Forces and a former teacher in Littlestown High School, spoke on "Diet and Diets." She explained the various vitamins, the foods in which they are contained and the food elements necessary to good health and also gave the rules for safe dieting. Dr. Maitland was presented to the club members by Mrs. Carrie Strine, chairman of the evening's program committee.

Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode, president of the club, was in charge of the business and heard routine reports from Mrs. Chester S. Byers and Mrs. Leonard L. Potter. Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, chairman of the Fashion Show committee, gave a progress report on fashion show plans. This sixth annual event will take place on Wednesday, April 22, in the high school auditorium. Tickets were distributed at the meeting by the finance committee. The theme this year will be "How to Figure Your Fashions" and will feature a simplicity wardrobe, in addition to the fashions to be made and modeled by members of the Woman's Club and of the Junior Woman's Club, or members of their families. Anyone desiring to show a hand-sewn fashion is asked to contact Mrs. Robert H. Miller. Special prize for the evening will be a dual control electric blanket and there will be numerous other draw prizes. Mrs. Monroe J. Stavelly is in charge of the prizes and members who have not already given her their donation may still do so.

It was voted to increase the annual dues from $4 to $5 and to change the bylaws in accordance with this decision. Two members of the club will participate with two members of the other service clubs in the community on the "Stump Your Neighbor" program for the Lions Club sponsored "TV Party Time" on Thursday, April 9. Mrs. Eckenrode appointed the following nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers for election at the May meeting: Mrs. Joseph R. Riden, Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Mrs. Harry T. Harner and Mrs. Clayton L. Evans.

Going To Convention
It was announced that the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Women's Clubs will be held on May 4 to 6 and it is expected that two members of the club will attend. It was also announced that the Warner Hospital Auxiliary is having a rummage sale on April 3 and 4 in Gettysburg and persons locally who have something to contribute may call one of the following, or take their contributions to their homes: Mrs. Monroe J. Stavelly, Mrs. Leonard L. Potter or Mrs. Samuel H. Higginbotham.

Members were asked to bring suggestions to the next meeting for the annual bus trip in June which will be in charge of the Civic Service committee, Mrs. Clarence Beachtel, chairman.

The Fashion Show on April 22 is being held on the regular meeting night and is in charge of the Fine Arts committee, Mrs. Carroll E. Arter, chairman, Mrs. Leroy W. Bish, Mrs. Beaven F. Hanlon, Mrs. Irvin R. Kindig, Mrs. Robert H. Miller, Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar, Mrs. Monroe J. Stavelly and Mrs. John Brodie; and the membership committee, Mrs. Bernard M. Selby, chairman, Mrs. Charles Benner, Mrs. Stanley S. Horner, Mrs. Orville C. Sentz, Mrs. James Slick and Mrs. Naomi C. Swartz.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of Wednesday's program by the cheer committee, Mrs. Robert J. Stoner, acting chairman.

Thor Makes 26th
Successful Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Air Force's versatile Thor has logged another apparently successful trip over intermediate range on its 26th flight test.

The 66-foot rocket, which seems to perform equally well as a war weapon and booster for space vehicles, roared aloft Thursday night on what appeared to be a perfect start.

The latest shoot was part of the Thor's advanced research and development series aimed at improving reliability — that is, bettering the odds for hitting the target on every launching.

Thor squadrons already are entrenched in the United Kingdom under Royal Air Force control as part of the NATO defenses.

The Thor now is considered 65 per cent reliable, but the Air Force hopes to increase it to 80 or 90 per cent by the end of the year.

St. John's Lutheran Church, the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor. Good Friday, 7:30 p.m., Holy Communion service. Easter Sunday, 8 a.m., Early Morning Easter Service of Praise, sermon by the pastor on the subject "The Resurrection"; 9 a.m., Sunday School; 10:15 a.m., Holy Communion, when the sacrament will be given to the spring confirmation class first. Too Much Money For Debate's Expenses

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP) — A campaign for $600 to send the Fort Scott Junior College debate team to a national forensic tournament at Aberdeen, Wash., has been called off.

Too much money! Contributors quickly responded with $804. The school board gave another $100 and said it would pick up the tab for gas and oil. Mrs. Kenneth Pollack offered her station wagon to the six debaters and their coach, Kenneth E. Mosier.

Mosier called off the funds drive Thursday. "We don't want to be piggy," he said.

LION ON LOOSE AT GARDEN IS CAUGHT IN NET

NEW YORK (AP) — Peanuts, pink popcorn—and a lion on the loose. The latter was inadvertently served up to about 2,000 persons attending a dress rehearsal Thursday night of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum and Bailey Circus at Madison Square Garden.

Putting on an impromptu, and terrifying, act for about 10 minutes was Ponto, heavily maned, 800-pound lion, said to be one of the largest of his species in captivity. He was finally recaptured in the lobby. No one was injured.

Spectators Scattered
Ponto broke through a door of his cage and started roaming around the big arena while a tiger and lion act was in progress.

Temporarily king of all he surveyed, he leaped over the arena rail into a section of seats—which luckily happened to be sparsely populated.

Emptied Lobby
Some spectators stood their ground, not knowing what else to do. Others scattered.

Hans Naumann, the lion's trainer, dashed after Ponto with whip, chair and pistol. Ponto headed for the lobby. It immediately emptied.

Apparently the huge beast was following the scent to other animals in the basement menagerie. He vainly tried to tear down the locked door to the basement.

Frustrated, he tried to climb onto a telephone booth in the lobby. Men with an aerialist's net cornered him there. With Naumann directing, a cage on rubber tires was wheeled in, and Ponto was safely stored away.

Resume Relations
With Bulgarians

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Communist Bulgaria—at the initiative of Bulgaria—have agreed to resume diplomatic relations.

The United States broke off relations in 1950 after Bulgaria accused Donald R. Heath, then U.S. ambassador, of espionage and demanded his recall.

Officials said Bulgaria had approached the United States several times about resuming relations. Each time the effort failed because the Sofia government refused to withdraw the charges against Heath.

The State Department said Thursday night it now considers it in the best interest of the United States to resume the relations because Bulgaria has at last withdrawn the Heath charges—calling them groundless.

NEW DRIVE FOR LEGAL LIQUOR
IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — One of the last outposts of prohibition—Oklahoma—is wavering in the face of another drive for legal liquor.

Surveys and vote samplings indicate the state may go wet. But drys are predicting this onslaught will be defeated as were six previous repeal attempts.

Oklahomans vote April 7 on changing the state constitution to allow privately owned package stores. They also vote whether to turn the entire state wet or leave that decision to individual counties.

Campaigns are being waged vigorously by the Oklahoma United Dry Assn., and the United Oklahoma For Repeal.

Dr. Sam Scantlan, executive director of the dry group, said: "Oklahoma mothers are becoming alarmed about the safety of their children. They know that more people will be killed under repeal and that their own children will be subjected to new dangers if the liquor interests should win."

H. W. McNeil, coordinator for repeal forces, declared: "Liquor in bottles, plus some in fruit jars, is readily available throughout Oklahoma and will continue to be. Mothers and fathers are greatly disturbed by these facts, and the easy access their children have to liquor under our present system of illegal control."

Miss Carleen Donovan, Wilmington, Del., spent the weekend with her fiancé, Pvt. John M. Skiles, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Skiles, E. Baltimore St.

Mrs. George Martell, E. Baltimore St., and her daughter, Miss Mary Martell, Baltimore, have returned home after spending several days with Mrs. Martell's brother, Jacob Collier, and family, Brownsville, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Collier.

Miss Hazel Hess and Miss Mary Fringer, W. Baltimore St.; Mrs. Margaret Nulton, Middle St., and Miss Mary Reindollar and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hesson, E. Baltimore St., will leave Monday by bus from Hanover for a two-week tour in Florida.

Pvt. John M. Skiles will return to Fort Knox, Ky., Friday after spending a 13-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Skiles, E. Baltimore St.

Patsy and Galen Heaps, of Street, Md., visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Clutz, Keysville Rd., Sunday through Wednesday.

At a special baptismal service Palm Sunday at 3 o'clock in Trinity Lutheran Church the following infants were baptized: Annette Carol Sell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sell; Harold David Liller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Liller; Dale Edward Kline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kline, and Vincent Lee Unger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Unger.

Orrtanna

Mrs. Luther Wetzel
Fairfield 125-R-21

ORRTANNA — The monthly meeting of the Adult Bible Class of the Mt. Carmel EUB Sunday School was held in the church hall Wednesday evening. Mrs. Ed Spence was the leader and Mrs. William Howe was the hostess. The topic for discussion was "The Resources of the Church in My Life." Following the program, there were refreshments and a social hour. It will be decided in the near future whether to continue the meetings during the summer.

Jacob Moritz, Orrtanna R. D., and Calvin Moritz, Gettysburg R. 2, attended the funeral of their brother, Harvey Moritz, in York on Monday. Also attending was Mrs. Edgar Althouse, Gettysburg, a niece.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Labor and Industry Department's approval was stamped today on new regulations to help school districts eliminate fire hazards speedily and economically.

They permit districts to use one-hour fire resistant material instead of two-hour material for enclosing school stairways.

"This will reduce construction costs for fire resistant stairways from approximately $20,000 to about $2,500, according to estimates he received," John F. Dwyer, director of the department's inspection bureau, said Thursday.

Cut Major Cost Item
The regulations were issued in connection with the department's intensive drive to eliminate school fire traps.

Dwyer said the action will reduce the major item of expense—construction of fire towers—that had confronted many school districts, some of them financially hard hit, in checking fire hazards.

He added that about one-third of the 1,864 schools in the state ordered to correct unsafe conditions will have to construct fire towers.

Heard Several Appeals
The new standards were recommended by a building advisory board comprising engineers, architects and representatives of management and labor in the construction industry.

Dwyer said the requirements were designed to satisfy the primary concern of pupil safety and yet allow schools faced with large expenditures to make changes quickly and at a reduced outlay.

The industrial board heard from several districts appealing closing orders Thursday.

A Fayette County school official said the German Township School District at McClellandtown lacked funds to make major corrections ordered at the Ronco Grade School, Ronco.

"Own Shoestring"
"We're operating on a shoestring, and we don't have a penny to spare," declared George Plava, supervising principal.

Ernest Stumpeff, supervising principal of the Meyersdale Joint School, Meyersdale, Somerset County, reported that the second floor of the Grant St. School building could be sealed off by next fall and stairwells enclosed in the old high school building.

A hearing for the Pittston Township School District was postponed for time to consider possible construction of new buildings or additions to ones requiring safety repairs.

Funny Disney Film Coming To Majestic

Billed as the "funniest shaggy dog story ever told," the Walt Disney feature, "The Shaggy Dog," will open next Wednesday at the Majestic Theater here for a four-day run.

Starring Fred MacMurray and Jean Hagen, the cast for the Disney comedy includes Tommy Kirk, Annette Funicello, Tim Considine and Kervin Corcoran.

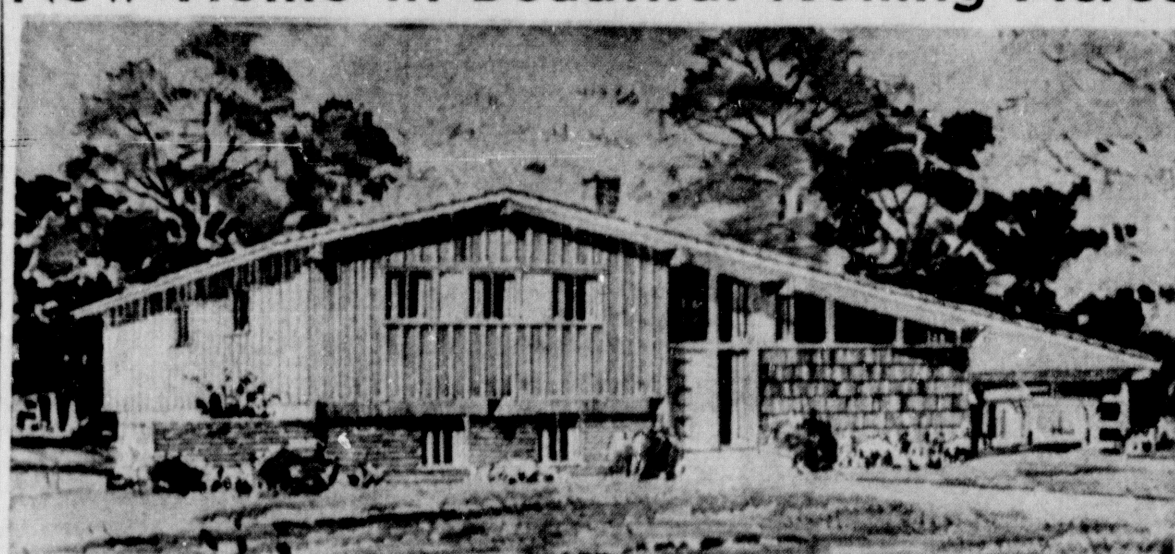

This Walt Disney presentation will go over well with young and adult movie-goers, for it is a amusing and hilarious live-action comedy-fantasy about a modern teen-ager who turns into a shaggy sheep dog on an on-and-off basis and uncovers a spy ring. A comical running gag throughout the proceedings concerns the encounters between the "dog" and a police officer, who dares not report that the animal talks and behaves like a human being lest others think that he is out of his mind.

The situation where the dog appropriates the officer's patrol car and he reports this fact to his unbelievably superior is uproariously funny. Tommy Kirk does good work as the teen-ager who turns into a dog, and an amusing portrayal is delivered by Fred MacMurray as his bewildered father. Youthful romantic interest is provided by Annette Funicello and Roberta Shore as teen-ager rivals for Tommy's favors.

While visiting a museum in his town, 16-year-old Tommy accidentally comes into possession of a medieval ring that has magic powers and transforms him into a large sheep dog similar to the one owned by Roberta, a new and pretty neighbor.

The climax comes when Tommy, while in hiding in the form of the dog, overhears a plot for a theft from a nearby missile plant. To expose the plotting spies, Tommy decides to inform his father who collapses when he hears his son's voice coming from a dog. In the wacky events that follow police think MacMurray is a mental case when he tries to warn them about spies.

I. H. Crouse And Sons Break Ground For New Home In Beautiful Rolling Acres

I. H. Crouse and Sons, Littlestown, owner and developers of Rolling Acres which swings around the northeastern sector of Littlestown borough, broke ground this week for a new home there. The architect's drawing and floor plans for the new home are shown in the accompanying photos.

A treasury of new ideas is offered in this handsome split-level house. The clean, simple lines of the exterior will blend nicely into any setting and the combination of building materials is unusually attractive.

An extended roofline forms the carport and provides shelter for the front doorway. In the vestibule there is a handy closet and the generous window area helps to make this a bright and cheerful spot in which to welcome guests.

Terrace At Rear Also on this level is the living room with windows at front and rear and an open balcony overlooking the family room.

On the lower level a family room forms the focal point for fun and relaxation. It is large enough to accommodate a hobby corner or perhaps a television and music center, as well as family games or party guests. Large sliding glass doors open to the rear of the house where a wonderfully useful terrace may be built.

The dining room is separated for privacy but it is still handy to the kitchen, and the kitchen is a well-designed one indeed.

Step-saver, Too There is a step-saving arrangement of all appliances, including the counter-top range and built-in oven, and there is a sizeable dinette space in front of the two windows.

Next to the kitchen you will find the very desirable and economical combination lavatory and laundry, which includes a built-in sink as well as a washer and dryer. On the upper level there is a sleeping area consisting of three bedrooms and a full bath. The hallway here is actually a balcony overlooking the vestibule, and bedroom 3 would make a perfect guest room or den.

To the rear in the left corner there is a spacious master bedroom with two window exposures and two spacious closets. The front bedroom has three windows and an extra large closet and the family bath boasts of a built-in vanity and a built-in hamper. In the hall there is a linen closet and a storage closet.

Cost Figure Good New ideas in a handsome house—truly a treasure. This home has been estimated for building at $15,000 including land in one area. Since there's almost 1,500 square feet of living area, that comes well below the countrywide minimum of $10 per foot which never includes land.

The overall dimensions of the new house will be 21 feet eight inches by 50 feet six inches. Excluding the carport, the lower level of the house covers 820 square feet.

CONGRESS IS UP TO DATE

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) said today the accomplishments of Congress during its three months of sessions compare favorably with those of any preceding Congress.

Rayburn reviewed the results as he packed his gear for a rest at his Texas ranch during a 12-day Easter recess.

Three bills already have been signed by President Eisenhower, he noted, and a fourth, extending emergency federal jobless benefits, has been sent to the President.

Statehood Bill Already signed into law are bills extending the draft law four years, granting statehood to Hawaii, and permitting artificial coloring of oranges.

A dozen other bills of a general nature, in addition to numerous private measures, have cleared the House, although none has gone to the President.

Most of the big, controversial bills, including appropriation measures, remain to be acted on following the recess which ends April 7.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ireland's President Sean O'Kelly, now touring America, gets a reception today in the Emerald Room of the Barclay Hotel.

All very appropriate, you'd say. What the management of the hotel isn't saying is that it usually is called the English Room.

31 Hospitalized By Monoxide Gas

KANAB, Utah (AP) — Carbon monoxide poisoning hospitalized 31 Santa Barbara, Calif., high school students and 41 adult advisers for four hours Thursday in this southwestern Utah community.

The group, members of the Calvary Baptist church in Santa Barbara, was returning by bus after a tour of the church's Navajo missions in northern Arizona.

Bus driver Walter McCully turned on the heater. Officers said it apparently sucked the exhaust fumes into the vehicle.

TEA AND TART DELIGHTFUL FOR GUESTS

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor

If you ever ask us to pay you a visit on Saturday or Sunday afternoon, please put the kettle on and brew a good strong pot of tea! Four or five o'clock tea time is one of the most delightful of hours, and if it isn't already part of your weekend enjoyment, we urge you to try this wonderfully pleasant custom.

To have tea time serene, all small fry should be handed absorbing new picture-puzzle games and served cambric tea and cookies in their own rooms. Then adult conversation, a requisite of tea time, has a real chance of being enjoyed.

When guests come to our house for afternoon tea over the weekend, we sometimes bake something special, such as a fruit tart, that should be eaten fresh. This apple tart is just that sort of offering: it should be served not hot, not cold, but just warm. The filling for the tart is made with canned apples — one of the best of the processed fruits, in our estimation — and overlaid with a custard rich in butter, sugar and eggs.

Apple Custard Tart

Ingredients: 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg yolk, 2 whole eggs, salt, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind (use half a lemon for rind), 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 shell, 1 can (1 pound and 4 drained).

Method: Cream butter and sugar; beat in egg yolk, then whole eggs and a dash of salt, the lemon rind and nutmeg. (Don't worry if mixture looks curdly.) Arrange drained apple slices in partly baked tart shell; spread creamed mixture over apples. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 5 minutes, reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake 20 to 25 minutes longer. Serve warm.

Tart Shell: Cream together 1/4 cup butter and a 3-ounce package of cream cheese. With a wooden spoon, blend in 1 cup sifted flour; don't overwork dough: it will be crumbly. Pat evenly into 9-inch pie plate, covering pie-plate rim and crimping edge by pinching dough together at small intervals or scalloping with little finger of one hand and thumb and forefinger of other. (Dough will shrink during baking but come up just high enough for filling.) Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 18 to 20 minutes. If crust edge gets too brown toward end of next baking, put a strip of foil around it.

DIMINISHING SHRIMP CATCH SEEN PROBLEM

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — The delectable shrimp, which has touched off more Gulf Coast sea battles than the pirate Jean Lafitte, may be pulling a disappearing act.

Shrimp boats which pulled in 2,000 pounds a day 10 years ago now settle for a daily catch of 500 pounds.

Could be only that the demand is at an all-time peak, say marine scientists. More shrimp boats than ever are going searching for the evil looking but delicate tasting shellfish once considered little more than fodder for a hot tomato sauce.

The sweet, tangy shrimp tickles the palates of Americans to the tune of about a pound per person annually.

Supermarket frozen food counters now carry everything from the old cocktail standby to the french fried and creole varieties.

John Mehos, president of the Shrimp Assn. of the Americas, says the industry does about 83 million dollars worth of business a year. Shrimpers who marketed only about 50 million pounds in 1930 produced four times that much last year.

Time was when the American housewife wouldn't touch a brown shrimp and the white shrimp was the only strain thought suitable for eating. But with the frozen food era came the rise of the brown-flecked beauty and its sister, shrimp, the pink — and the gradual disappearance of the white.

Now not more than 15 per cent of the industry's total catch is white and at least one scientist says Mrs. Housewife doesn't know the difference.

"Some claim they can tell but I doubt it — although I've never given taste tests," says research biologist Ed Chen of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service here.

Shrimpers haul in the pink chiefly off Florida's west coast and Mexico's Campeche Banks. The brown — and what whites remain — are found off the Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and northern Mexico coasts.

In lean seasons the shrimper strays farther from his home port in search of a payoff. With demand on the increase, competition gets rougher.

Mexico lifts an irritated eyebrow at any foreign fishing boats camped off the 12-mile limit she claims. Often it has led to naval action.

A Mexican gunboat fired on a Texas shrimp boat she claimed was within her coastal waters last year, wounding its skipper. His craft was towed to a Mexican port and its shrimp confiscated.

In recent years dozens of other U. S. shrimpers also claim to have been persuaded at gun point to turn over their cargoes to Mexican authorities. Texas shrimpers raised cries of piracy on the high seas and asked for added Coast Guard protection.

Both nations agree the problem is a serious one.

Chen says government shrimp production figures go back only two years and that the drop in the size of catches could reflect only the substantial increase in the size of the fishing fleets. Shrimpers' figures, he says, are

Painter Bounces Off Wires To Roof

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Marvin R. Harbor, 33, a painter, escaped with a leg injury Thursday when he fell from the roof of an eight-story building.

Harbor slipped and dangled by his fingertips for several minutes before losing his grip on the roof edge. As he fell he struck a cluster of electric wires two stories below. They bounced him onto the roof of an adjoining six-story building.

Nervous Bandit Is Sought By Police

EAST SMITHFIELD, Pa. (AP)—A nervous bandit, who used a sawed-off shotgun to rob the East Smithfield Bank of $2219, was sought over a wide area of north and central Pennsylvania today.

Mrs. Ellen Pollack, a teller at the bank, said the robber pointed the gun at her Thursday then came into the tellers' cages and cleaned out the cash drawers. He passed up much larger quantities of cash in the vault.

The man fled in a light blue auto, heading west on Route 106, state police believe.

The robber also threatened Mrs. Anna B. Withey, a clerk-teller, and Dent Hawthorne, the cashier, herding them to the front of the bank where Mrs. Pollack had been standing.

prone to lean on oldtimers' memories.

But he adds that if shrimpers claim their evasive crustacean is declining in number, there must be something to it.

Shrimper Mehos, one of Texas' largest producers, says shrimp conservation is a must.

"Thirty or 40 years ago," he points out, "crop rotation was thought to be sheer malarky." One bright spot, Chen says, is the discovery of new shrimp strains such as the Royal Red found by government scientists in deep water off the Florida and Louisiana coasts.

Not yet fished commercially, it's of jumbo size and could prove to be the seafood enthusiast's delight.

But big or small, the shrimp has won its spurs as a delicacy. Except, possibly, to the shrimp boat crewman. He's a man known to take a dim view of the shrimp once it's off to market.

WANT HEALTH SERVICE CHECK ON RADIATION

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service should take over an expanded radiation control program, a group of scientists recommends. The cost: 50 million dollars annually by 1965.

The suggestions came Thursday from the special National Advisory Committee on Radiation, scientific advisers to the surgeon general.

The group said it did not intend to be critical of the Atomic Energy Commission, which now has the primary responsibility for protecting the nation from radiation hazards. But it said there are serious weaknesses in the present radiation control setup.

Control Proposed The committee urged legislation to give the health service top responsibility in the field, with authority to develop a comprehensive program of control for all sources of radiation.

AEC Chairman John McCone told a Senate-House committee this week that if Congress wants to assign part of the radiation problem to other agencies, the AEC will cooperate fully. He said his agency plans to spend 20 million dollars on such work in the year ahead.

TOKYO (AP) — Danish Ambassador Torben Nielsen called on Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako today without the customary formal dress. Thieves broke into his residence during the night and made off with most of his wardrobe and his wife's fur coat.

Gettysburg Outer Belt Is Midget Pike In Lebanon; Builder Gettysburg Native

In all probability you never heard of the Lehigh Midland Railroad or, for that matter, the Gettysburg Outer Belt Railroad. These two local companies have total assets that include six engines, 16 passenger cars, 17 freight cars plus stations, coal loaders, water towers and quite a large amount of track.

Both are model railroad companies, owned by Howard Fox, a native of Gettysburg, who has lived at 7 Ridge Ave., Lebanon, for the past three years. He is a 1951 graduate of Gettysburg College and is employed as an engineer by the Metropolitan Edison Co.

He is a son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Howard S. Fox, N. Stratton St.

What makes these two railroads unusual is that every piece of equipment has been built to scale by Fox, who last year was awarded the Ken Allwein Trophy, presented to the member of the Lebanon Valley Model Railroad Club who did the most for the organization during the year.

He has the entire cellar of his home set up for his hobby. He has a small machine shop complete with drill press, paint sprayer, and other equipment that he uses to build his model trains and various buildings.

At the present time he is building a large display which will include mountains, coal mines, stone quarries, tunnels and many feet of track.

Uses Ties

The track, incidentally, is laid just like on a big railroad. Wooden ties are put on top of cinders and small spikes, that are exact duplicates of the ones used by the Reading and Pennsylvania lines, hold the ties in place.

Just to add authenticity to the layout Fox revealed that some of the cinders used in laying his track came from the Norfolk and Western Railroad. When he was on vacation last summer he gathered a box of cinders in Virginia and brought them along home to use on his railroad.

Aside from the project of building his display, he has under construction two engines, a half-dozing just like mine," he noted. Although Fox has been working on his hobby for the past two years he figures it will take him another two or three years to complete his display. He values his two railroads at about $1,000.

20-Year Interest

Fox says that he has been interested in model railroading for the past 20 years and is not losing any of his ardor.

In fact, he is more interested than ever because of the passing out of existence of the steam engine.

His hobby brings him an extra income. He operates a repair shop for electric trains. He said there isn't too much during the year but in November and December he has to drop work on his hobby to keep up with all the repair work.

Dr. Oliver Gets Medal From Rhee

SEOUL (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today awarded South Korea's presidential medal to Dr. Robert T. Oliver, a professor at Pennsylvania State University.

Oliver was cited for his "great assistance in the expansion of western understanding of Korea and its problems."

Rhee said in his citation: "in addition to many other duties, you have at all times made yourself available as a consultant to various branches of the Korean government on whom they can rely implicitly for quick discernment of the facts and sage counsel."

Oliver is one of several foreigners who came here to join in the celebration Thursday of Rhee's 84th birthday.

The Day Christ Died

Jesus is placed in the tomb. Mary, looking at her Divine Son, finds that she can weep no more. At this tragic moment it is difficult for anyone to fully realize Christ's victory in death.

3 P.M.

April 7, A.D. 30

THE FEATHER was removed. John went out to the women and gathered up the strips of linen, into which they had rubbed the spices. These were two: a resin extracted from agave, and soccotrine aloes, which has a scent of balsam, midway between myrrh and saffron.

The men worked quickly and quietly. One anointed the body with balm oil, rubbing it in with the ball of the thumb; another tore the big bolt of cloth into strips; a third wound the strips around the legs and the arms.

A large white linen cloth was fitted down over the body and the three men cut it a few inches beyond the tips of the toes. Narrow strips—or bandages—were now cut from the remainder. The big shroud was tied with these bandages, at the neck, at the waist, and around both ankles. The upper part of the shroud covered the head, but the bandage around the neck enabled anyone at any time to flick the head covering off to identify the body.

Carry Body Inside

In the first week or two after burial, the cloth was turned down from the head to expose it. The bandage around the waist was to keep the hands from slipping from the body. The third one was to prevent the ankles from spreading apart.

When this was done, the three men carried the body of Jesus inside, stooping low to get through the stone opening. They laid Him on a shelf of rock on the right side. The body faced Jerusalem, and the rock was slightly higher than the remainder of the shelf.

The white shroud was off the face. The odor of the spices was heavy in the sepulcher. When the men had arranged the body so that it appeared in proper repose, John hurried out to bring in the three Marys. On the way back, he told them that this was a hasty work, that Jesus was not properly anointed, but, again, that Mary Magdalene and Mary of Alpheus could, on the morrow or on Sunday come with spices and perfumes and pay homage to the Lord.

Interior Was Dark

The interior was dark, except for the fitful shadows and yellow light thrown by the dying tapers. The main part of the sepulcher was so small that the men had to leave in order to allow the women to enter. The virgin mother bent low and was the first to go in. Her shadow, with long veil, was thrown darkly across the body as she looked down upon her Divine Son and found that she could weep no more.

Behind her stood the other Marys, their memories telling them that this was what He wanted; their hearts telling them that this was a tragic moment for mankind.

They remained a few minutes and, as they stooped to leave, they whispered among themselves that they would be back to do honor to the Messiah. The Magdalene wanted to leave at once to purchase perfumes in the city, but Nicodemus told her that the Sabbath was too close. Besides, the morrow would not be too late.

Tapers Are Extinguished

John went back in and extinguished the little tapers, one by one. The body of Jesus faded from his vision little by little. At last it blended with the velvet of darkness inside. He stepped outside, and tried to thank Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus formally, but they would not listen. They assured him that there were things he did not know.

The three men laid hold of the rolling stone and moved it further away from the opening, so that the rock holding it back could be removed. Then slowly, reluctantly, they permitted it to slide back down the curved groove until it rocked into place before the tomb.

Nicodemus took the empty spice boxes and the linen strips which were left. He gazed long upon the face of the mother of Jesus. Then, with no farewell, he turned and went away. Joseph bowed to the women, and followed him. Young John looked helplessly at the big millstone, then told Mary, the mother of Jesus, that it was time they started for "home."

Mary Manages To Smile

Mary nodded slightly and managed a small smile for her new son. He took her arm, and they left, walking through the garden of wild flowers and up onto the rock shelf where the three up-veiled women, and followed him.

Mary of Alpheus said that she did not want to leave. She sat before the golet—the great rolling stone—and leaned her back against its beige roughness. Mary Magdalene sat down beside her. Both leaned against the stone.

It had been a long day. A very long day.

"It Was Victory"

The grief among the followers of Jesus would be poignant, a volatile fuel which, in its own fierce flame, burns itself out quickly. They did not understand. (For a moment in time at least, they could not understand.) To their way of thinking, this was now a tragic defeat. It was not. It was victory beyond their most exalted imaginings. He had come here to die. And He had died. He had come to preach a new covenant with His Father, and He had preached it. He had come to tell man that the way to everlasting life was love—each for the other, each for Him, and His love for all—and He had proved this by laying down His life in a torrent of torment—for them.

He did not die particularly for the Jews, or for the Gentiles. He died for man. All mankind. He came to Palestine to lay the foundations of His new covenant because He and His Father were dissatisfied with the old. The Father had never made a covenant with the Romans, or the Greeks or the Egyptians. He had made it, through Moses, with the Jews.

And the leaders of Judea had, over the centuries, perverted that covenant until worship became a matter of externals in which all inner love was missing. If a new covenant was to replace the old, it would be negotiated with the same people.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

He is risen. (Mark 16:6)

That is why He had to die in Palestine; that is why, of all the cities in Palestine, He had to die in the Holy City—the city of His Father. The high priests rejected Him and plotted against Him and killed Him.

The people didn't. The people were looking for the Messiah, waiting eagerly. And, although Jesus did not fit their conception of a resplendent Messiah clothed in clouds of glory, they were willing to listen. They did listen.

Inside the sepulcher now, Jesus was not dead. If He was, then all men are dead; they creep irrevocably toward darkness. But this is not so. There were too many signs to the contrary. For two and a quarter years, Jesus pointed the way and, had He followed the dictates of His heart, He would have done nothing but cure and cure and cure.

In a way, the miracles interfered with His mission, which was to preach the good news and die.

His body was to be rended and missed the enormous triumph; its functions were to cease. In this immolation, His soul would be glorified and in this too He was pointing the way to man. The two Marys sat with their backs to the stone. They loved Him and, in their love, they missed the enormous triumph; the new promise; the good news. They did not even notice that the sun was shining.

Epistles From A Roman

Execution Of Galilean Is Described In Soldier's Letter; Says Procurator Pilate Was Cowed By Mob

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the final article in an Easter series written in the form of daily letters from a Roman officer in Jerusalem to his father in Rome. Although the soldier mocked the Galilean at first, his feelings have undergone great change. Here is the final Easter "Epistle from a Roman."

By TOM HENSHAW
Associated Press Religion Writer
Jerusalem, Judea
16th year of the Caesar Tiberius Gaius my father,

The Galilean is dead!
He was crucified this day between two common thieves in the place of execution called Golgotha while street scum mocked and taunted him and the black skies were rent by lightning and thunder fairly shook the earth.

And, while the mob hurled jeers and insults and laughing soldiers cast lots for his garments, the tortured Galilean lifted his head and asked — no, implored — pardon for them saying: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

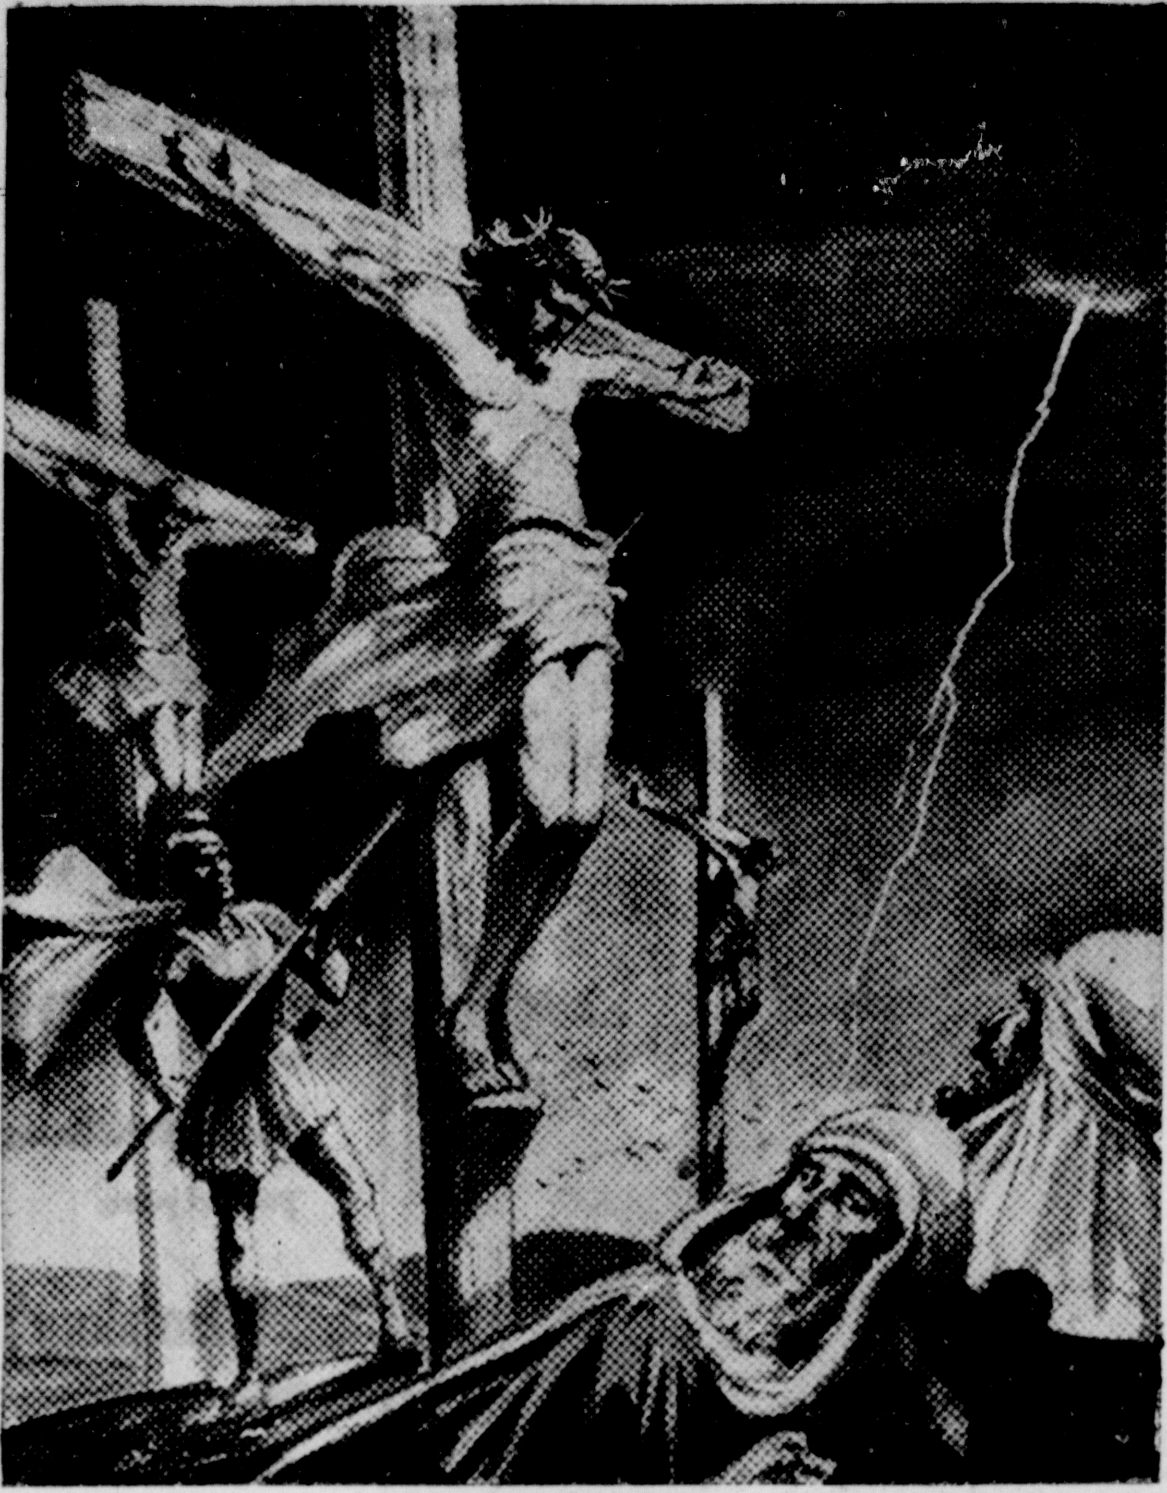

The Procurator Pilate, the last man who could have saved him, allowed himself to be cowed by the mob's thirst for blood. The procurator pronounced him faultless yet summoned a bowl of water and washed his hands of the whole affair.

But I can find it in my heart to understand and forgive the procurator for, in the words of the Galilean, in his weakness he knew not what he did. But why do I speak of forgiveness? Do strong men forgive? Is forgiveness not a weakness?

The Galilean is dead!
This I know, for I was with the crowd that followed as he carried his cross to the place of execution, scourged, dressed in robes of mock royalty and crowned with a circlet of thorns. Would that I could have helped him in his ordeal.

Watched Him Die
I stood at the foot of the cross as his life expired, when a bolt of lightning splashed the scene with unearthly light and the world rocked beneath our feet as in an earthquake and a centurion of Rome stood stunned and gasped out: "Truly, this was the Son of God."

If only I could have spoken personally with this Galilean, this Jesus, this Christ. If only I could have put to him these questions that now torture me. Must they haunt me the rest of my life? Now, it is too late.
The Galilean, Jesus, lies in the tomb. His tomb is sealed by a rock, one too heavy to be rolled away by one man or by six men. Soldiers stand guard over the tomb for the priests fear him even in death. What do they fear? That he will arise from the dead?

"I stood at the foot of the cross as his life expired, when a bolt of lightning splashed the scene with unearthly light and the world rocked as in an earthquake."

Disciples Have Scattered

His followers, the 12—no, 11—who were his close disciples, have disappeared. Scattered to the four winds. Now I wish I had taken Peter more seriously two days ago when we talked of this man and his teachings. Would that I had given him both ears! Now it is too late.

Or is it? Is it ever too late? If Jesus is the Son of God then he will find some way to show me, some way to answer these questions that burn within me.

But is he the Son of God?

Part of me says no. At Golgotha, a man near me, one of the mockers, shouted at Jesus: "If you are the Son of God, why do you not save yourself as you claim to have saved others?" Indeed, I asked myself the same question. Why did he not save himself?

"He Is Son Of God"

Another part of me says yes, he is the Son of God. Else how does one explain the unearthly spell that surrounds him and affects men's minds? How does one explain the miracles that sincere and honest men say they have seen him perform? Why does he arouse these questions in me.

Peter told me that when I have faith, I shall know. But how shall I have faith unless I know? Others have had signs. Peter, the disciples, even my unbelieving friend Titus. Why have I had no sign?

I think that tomorrow I shall go out to the tomb. If there is to be a sign for me, my father, it now can only be there that it will be given, if not tomorrow then the next day or the next. I do not know what the sign will be. But I shall be there, watching and waiting, waiting.

Valerius, thy son

POISON FISH SCARE ENDED ACROSS EAST

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The death of a three-year-old boy who had eaten poisoned fish touched off an alert Wednesday night that spread fear throughout the East for several hours.

Later, a statement from federal food inspectors indicated the bad fish was confined to a relatively small amount in the Philadelphia area.

The Donald Kleinschmidt family, both parents and four young children, were stricken ill at their home in nearby Haddon Heights, N.J., after eating a fish dinner Tuesday night.

Boy Dies

Dale, 3, the youngest, died shortly after admission to Cooper Hospital in Camden. Two brothers and a sister were seriously stricken.

Representatives of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration were informed Wednesday of the cause of the youngster's death. Laboratory analyses of the family's dinner indicated a high content of sodium nitrite, a poison, which in much smaller quantities is sometimes used as a preservative for meats.

Meanwhile, three women had suffered attacks of food poisoning after eating fish in a Philadelphia restaurant Tuesday night.

Quickly Traced

Robert C. Stanfill, local director of the federal food agency, said his inspectors quickly traced the fish, in both instances fileted fluke and flounder, to a single wholesale distributor in Philadelphia.

The city health department meanwhile had issued a warning on a teletype service which reaches newspapers, radio and television stations in the area.

The first report said "all flounder purchased yesterday and today is poisonous" and should be destroyed.

Radio and television programs brought the news at the dinner hour to homes where the Lenten meal was being prepared or had already been eaten. Telephone calls poured into stations, papers and city agencies.

RECORD HAMBLETONIAN

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — The 34th running of the Hambletonian Stake to be held at the State Fair here Sept. 2, is expected to be worth a record $133,000. Eighty-four three-year-old trotters are eligible.

Haggis is a Scottish dish of ground lamb and oatmeal, and is almost always eaten at Scottish societies and Robert Burns club meetings.

Jobless Pay Bill Up To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Beneficiaries of the temporary federal jobless pay program who become unemployed before April 1 were assured Thursday their checks would not be cut off on that date.

Congress Wednesday night sent to President Eisenhower a bill extending the program to June 30 but limiting it to persons who become jobless before April 1.

Eisenhower is expected to sign it soon; his administration endorsed the measure last week in hearings before the Senate Finance Committee.

SAYS EXERCISE IS BEST TONIC

"Need a tonic, a pepper upper? Don't reach for the sulphur and molasses, start exercising regularly," said Mrs. Helen Tunison, associate home economist.

"Exercise is both investigating and unexpectedly rewarding," she said. "You can feel slim and supple with only a small amount of exercise. And a few minutes of exercise each day for several weeks can help you redistribute your weight by taking inches off your waistline, hips or bust."

"If you're in good health, start exercising now and don't miss a day. If you've been ill or had an operation recently, check with your doctor before doing any exercises."

"Stretching is an excellent type of exercise. It brings rarely used muscles into play and helps you keep in shape. A good stretching exercise is to stand with your back to a wall and feet four inches away from it. Stretch your left arm up the wall as if you were trying to climb, then stretch your right arm in the same manner. Repeat 25 times.

Variation

"A variation of this stretching exercise is to remain with your back against the wall and stretch your right arm toward the ceiling as if you were plucking a bunch of grapes just out of your reach."

Repeat with your left arm, alternating arms five to 10 times. "Another exercise is to stand erect with your arms at your sides, then holding your chest high and your chin in make an effort to push your head up to the sky. Repeat 10 times."

NEW YORK (AP) — Numerous Lutheran women's groups prepared 7,200 garments for boys and girls. The clothing was shipped to Arab refugee children under auspices of Lutheran World Relief.

THE UNWED MOTHER

By Anne

As Told To Sidney Fields

When I learned I was going to have a baby, its father was 10,000 miles away. We were not married.

My name is Anne; I am 20. My father owns a hardware store in the suburb of a big city. My brother, the oldest, is the favorite. He went to college, I didn't. Not enough money. I got a job as a secretary.

My younger sister is very pretty. They say I'm attractive, but nobody ever called me pretty. When my sister was graduated from high school and won a college scholarship, everybody raved about her. I felt like an exile and found excuses to be away from home.

One boy I knew, Jim, seemed to have a quality I never noticed in other boys. He was a good listener, and I had to talk. Jim seemed to understand what was wrong at home.

We went into service. I was terrified, and alone, very alone. Where could I go? In desperation I went to a doctor in a nearby town, and asked him to perform an abortion.

"No," he said. He tried to be kind. "You'll be more miserable than you ever were if I did that."

I almost snarled at him: "I don't need advice. I need help. I need someone who really cares. Isn't there anyone? Anyone?"

A Minister's Advice

He phoned a minister in the same town, and told him I would come right over. I didn't want to go, but what else could I do? The minister asked me to sit down. "We can't undo wrong," he said, "but we can do everything right from now on. I'm going to send you to someone who can help you — Mrs. Richard Gould. She works for the Youth Consultation Service."

Mrs. Gould, was a tall, pretty, grey-haired woman, and her eyes seemed to say: "There's nothing to fear."

She told me that for 40 years the Youth Consultation Service had been helping girls in troubled hours.

"It takes courage," she said, "to decide you have a problem too big you can't settle it yourself."

She had the voice of sweet charity, but never mentioned the word.

How To Tell Her Parents

"How can I tell my parents? I know I must, but I can't do it. I can't disappear. They'd call the police."

"The first to worry about is yourself," Mrs. Gould said. "You can't stay at home, or go to the local hospital. But you can be safe and reasonably secure in our shelter."

"Is the shelter like a reformatory?" I was afraid again.

"Come and see," she said. A few days later she took me to the shelter. Youth Consultation Service is sponsored by the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York, but the girls they help are of every creed. In one room of the shelter some were reading, others sewing, some watching TV, and others lying down.

"No babies?" I asked Mrs. Gould.

"In the nursery," she took me there. Four babies, all lovely, happy, contented.

Words Choked Her

"You have a chance to care for and know your baby," Mrs. Gould said. "You go to a hospital to have it, then return here. We have a clinic here, and doctors come once a week to see the girls."

I tried to tell my parents several times, but the words choked in my throat. When I finally did, they looked as if I had hit them with an axe. I talked quickly about Youth Consultation Service and we went to see Mrs. Gould.

The first question my mother asked Mrs. Gould was: "What did we do that was wrong?"

"What's important now is what we can do together that will be right for Anne," Mrs. Gould said. "One thing — you can love your daughter. Very hard. She needs it."

Prayed With Heart

I went into the shelter and became part of the life there. My prayers meant more than ever. Now I prayed with my heart.

But there was a new torment. As the baby became more and more real to me, I began to hurt in a way I hadn't hurt before.

Mrs. Gould said the decision was mine to make and whatever good plan I chose for the baby and myself, she would help.

She explained it from all sides: A baby needs roots. I couldn't keep it with my family. If I left home how would I care for the child? I could work and board it out. But would the child grow more fond of the foster mother than of me?

It was a long, bitter decision to reach. Finally I told Mrs. Gould I wanted my baby to be adopted; that it was best for the baby, my family, and me.

Terrible Pain

When I finally signed the adoption papers, I never knew such inside pain.

I had continued to write Jim, but didn't know whether to tell him or not. Mrs. Gould said Jim had done wrong, too, that fathers should carry part of the responsibility, and are held responsible when possible, but Jim wasn't part of the ordeal. He might feel he had to marry me, or he might be angry and ask: "What right did you have to give my son away?" What good purpose would it serve in telling him? There was no point in creating a new ache for others.

Eventually Jim went out of my life. I met other boys and looked upon them with more understanding.

TV NETWORKS TONOTEEASTER ON PROGRAMS

NEW YORK (AP) — The Easter season is being observed on the three major television networks with religious programs and a variety of entertainment (all times eastern standard).

Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic conclude their series of young people's concerts on CBS Saturday at noon. At 6:30 CBS brings the Texas Rodeo Championship from Lubbock, Tex.

William Saroyan's "The Human Comedy" is presented on "Du Pont Show of the Month" over CBS Saturday at 9:30. Narrated by Burgess Meredith and starring Jo Van Fleet, David Francis and Anne Helm, it concerns the experiences of a boy who becomes a telegram messenger to support his widowed mother during World War II.

At 10 on CBS Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, officiates at a solemn pontifical mass from Holy Cross Cathedral, Boston.

At 11 on NBC on Easter Sunday devotional service will be telecast from Christ Episcopal Church in Cincinnati. At the same hour on CBS a Protestant Episcopal service will be telecast from National Cathedral, Washington. The 90-voice youth choir of the Mamaroneck Methodist Church of New York will be seen and heard on ABC at 3.

Mary Martin stars in the first of two Easter hour-long programs on NBC at 4. In a show designed primarily for children she will sing and narrate excerpts from "Peter Pan" and "Cinderella."

"Omnibus" offers the first public showing of a United Nations film "Power Among Men," on NBC at 5. The first big TV documentary on America's 50th state, called "Hawaii: Pacific Miracle," will be shown on NBC at 6.

At the same hour on CBS Edward R. Murrow's "Small World" presents the second part in a conversation involving Noel Coward, James Thurber and Siobhan McKenna. At 6:30 on CBS "20th Century" traces "The Times of Teddy Roosevelt."

Whether or not you saw "The Jazz Age" on television last year, it's worth a look on NBC at 7—if for no other reason than to hear the late Fred Allen's gravel-voiced narration.

At 8 on NBC Mary Martin presents her second program of the day—this one designed primarily for adults and featuring many of the songs she made famous on Broadway.

Monday at 7:30 "America Pauses for Springtime" features many prominent performers from numerous sections of the country on CBS. At 9 on ABC "Voice of Firestone" offers the music of Cole Porter.

"Pete Kelly's Blues" makes its debut on NBC Tuesday at 8. It stars William Reynolds as a trumpet player in a small Kansas City jazz band in the 1920s. At 8:30 on NBC another program has its premiere: "The Jimmie Rodgers Show," a musical series.

RESCUE CRAFT

STANDING BY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) — "Passengers in life jackets lined the rails of the Santa Rosa. Coast Guard helicopters and amphibian planes circled overhead. Surface craft steamed through choppy waters to the site of the collision."

That's the picture an Associated Press newsphoto editor saw Thursday when he flew over the site of the collision between the Grace

ing. I know my parents and my brother and sister love me, and I love them more deeply than ever.

From time to time I see Mrs. Gould and we write each other. In one letter she wrote:

"If you feel you have made a good decision, the hurt will be less in time. And you can say now: 'With God's help I have experienced yesterday. Good or bad, I am living today, and I am not afraid of tomorrow.'"

SATURDAY — Morris Cohen tells how his determination to help others because he, himself, was blind, brought a most satisfying and rewarding experience.

SPACE A-TEST

ACHIEVEMENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some of the electrons released last fall in America's nuclear space tests may still be circulating, scientists report.

The dramatic tests which lit up the heavens and hurled a man-made radiation sheet around the world were first disclosed last week.

Defense Department and International Geophysical Year scientists met Wednesday at the White House to report to newsmen on scientific aspects of the three high-altitude atomic blasts over the South Atlantic.

Many participants, they said, regard scientific results of the experiment known as Project Argus as one of the major achievements of the IGY.

The scientists declined to talk about military aspects of the tests. Unofficial sources had indicated the artificial radiation belt was being tested as a possible shield against missiles. Other quarters outside the Pentagon said it was aimed at disrupting communications and radar networks.

Although some of the electrons emitted in the tests may still be circulating at extremely high altitudes, the scientists said the artificial radiation belt has long since disappeared. The blasts were touched off Aug. 27 and 30 and Sept. 6.

liner Santa Rosa and the empty tanker Valchem. The ships collided 22 miles east of this resort.

William Achatz, newsphoto editor in the AP's Philadelphia bureau, said: "The ships lay several hundred yards apart. The port side of the tanker—20 feet from the stern—was badly stove in. The tanker was hit from its portside, almost at right angles."

"The fire in the bow of the Santa Rosa did not appear violent. Crewmen aboard were fighting the fire."

"It didn't look as if the tanker was taking water although it was lying low in the water, indicating it had taken on some water."

TENSION EASES IN STRIKE AREA

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP) — Small mines sent coal to several processing ramps Thursday as tension lessened in the strike-bound eastern Kentucky hills.

Loaded coal trucks rolled into two nonunion ramps near here owned by Roland Price. At least two other ramps in Perry and Knott counties were operating, and in Pike County half a dozen ramp operators were loading coal.

The mining and processing activity spread only a day after fast-acting United Mine Workers Union officials stopped a 700-man miner motorcade as it headed for one of Price's ramps.

The action, ordered by UMW Dist. 30 President Carson Hibbitts after Gov. A. B. Chandler alerted the National Guard, helped still fears of an outbreak of real trouble. Some 1,200 UMW pickets had shown up at Price's Camp Fork tangle two days ago.

The UMW is striking in six eastern counties for a new contract which calls for a $2 daily pay boost, to $24.25. It also aims at stopping the handling by union mines and processing plants of coal mined in nonunion mines.

Sunday is a Special Day

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Luke	19	28-44
Monday	John	18	1-14
Tuesday	John	18	15-27
Wednesday	John	18	28-40
Thursday	John	19	1-16
Friday	John	19	17-30
Saturday	John	19	31-42

Sunday is a special day for Sheila. She likes to go to church.

For one thing, the church is beautiful. Sheila likes to look at the soft light filtering through the colored glass windows. She likes the delicate scent of the beautiful flowers, and the majestic tones of the organ. She likes to sing, too, and she knows several hymns "all the way through," even without the hymnal to guide her.

She particularly likes this season because she knows that Palm Sunday is a time for special rejoicing in the Church.

Sheila feels the way she does because her parents have taught her that going to church is a privilege and a joy. Is Sunday just another day for your child, or is it—as it is for Sheila—a special day?

JESUS CHRIST LIVES

Luke 24:13-53

Key Verse: This Jesus God raised up, and of this we all are witnesses. Acts 2:32.

The first written record of the written resurrection is I Corinthians 15. Paul wrote this about twenty-five years after the crucifixion. He says that what he had preached was something of a "standard doctrine," generally accepted by the Christians. He reminds the Corinthian Christians: "I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins . . . that he was raised . . . that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, . . . he appeared also to me." (1 Corinthians 15:3-8)

This long chapter of I Corinthians has always been the standard reference of Christians who seek to understand the nature of the resurrection. Paul is the teacher throughout as he takes question after question and gives the answers.

Jesus Appears To Disciples
One of the most dramatic stories in the Bible is the walk of two disciples to the village of Emmaus on that first Easter day. The two are discussing the events of the days past. Jesus overtakes them and joins them as a stranger-companion.

Accordingly, as though Jesus were a newcomer who had not read the headlines of the morning newspaper, the two disciples tell Him about the events from early Friday morning up to that moment.

"We had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel," they said with a shrug of the shoulders, "but that hope has now been dashed." The story of the empty tomb, reported by the women, was doubted by all the disciples. "Some of those who were with us went to the tomb (to check the story), and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see." The whole story was a startling new revelation to them! As such, it was beyond their comprehension.

Wonder Of Resurrection
This experience recorded by Luke was one of the steps by which the wonder of the resurrection was made known. The disciples, hardly able to comprehend one mystery, are given another! But this one gives living reality to the words "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Luke's story leads to the home of one of these disciples.

There were others very close to Jesus who were also disciples, though they were not in the group called the twelve. When the three arrive at the village of Emmaus, Jesus desires to say farewell but is invited into their home.

Food is prepared and is set before them. Jesus, though a guest, proceeds to act as though He Himself is the host at the meal. In a custom familiar to those disciples, "Jesus took the bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them." The disciples have a growing awareness of the identity of this stranger when he vanishes. Luke suggests that the dullness of their senses was removed only when He was gone.

"The Lord Has Risen"
The lesson for the day begins at this point. The two disciples hurry back to Jerusalem. There they find the eleven (Judas had hanged himself) together with other disciples. The big news is "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"

Imagine, now, the great surprise when these two tell their story! If Jesus were to appear at all, it would naturally be to Peter, the leader of the disciples. Now something new has come to pass, revealing the rapidly spreading nature of the gospel. Surely God is no respecter of persons if already, on this first day, Christ has come in power to others.

The whole group is rejoicing in this sharing of experiences when Jesus appears again to them. The stories by Peter and the two Emmaus travelers are now to be verified. "But they were startled and frightened, and supposed that they saw a ghost."

"Preach To All Nations"
However, as Jesus had done to the two Emmaus travelers, so now He opens up the meaning of the Scriptures. But He also adds the most significant charge of verse 47—"that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be"

LINER OWNERS BLAME TANKER FOR COLLISION

NEW YORK (AP)—The owners of the cruise liner Santa Rosa say the tanker Valchem was to blame for the collision that killed four tanker sailors and brought a shattering climax to a Caribbean holiday for 247 passengers.

A "radical course alteration" was made by the tanker, the Santa Rosa owners say. There was no immediate comment from the operators of the Valchem.

Conflict over whether there was fog at the time of the crash highlighted the preliminaries to a Coast Guard investigation starting Monday.

Reports Vary

Spokesmen for the Grace Line, owner of the Santa Rosa, said the collision off Atlantic City, N.J., at 3 a.m. Thursday occurred in only patchy haze. They said the Valchem had been sighted both visually and by radar.

But a Santa Rosa lookout, a number of passengers and several injured crewmen of the tanker said there was thick fog in the collision area 22 miles off the coast.

Seventeen of the crew of the Valchem were injured, in addition to one known dead and three missing and presumed dead. The Santa Rosa brought the injured here and they were taken to the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital on Staten Island.

None of the 247 passengers and 265 crewmen on the Santa Rosa was injured when the 25-million-dollar liner knifed into the tanker.

REPORT HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE IN TIBET FIGHT

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—Maharaja Kumar of Sikkim said today that loss of life in the Tibetan revolt has been very heavy but as far as he knows the Dalai Lama escaped from the Chinese Communists.

The young maharaja, son of the ruler of the tiny Himalayan state between India and Tibet, arrived in Tokyo for a Buddhist cultural conference. He said he got his information from official sources just before he left Gangtok, capital of Sikkim.

The Sikkim prince said the Dalai Lama, Tibet's 23-year-old spiritual and political ruler, escaped from his summer palace before the Chinese Reds captured it on Tuesday.

Report Lama Fled

He reported that Red forces began firing on the palace at 1 a.m. Tuesday and kept up a violent barrage until it capitulated.

"No one knows if the Dalai Lama was hit when the Chinese captured the palace," the prince said. "We hope and pray for him. Even if he falls into Chinese hands, we pray no harm will come to him."

An unconfirmed report in India Thursday said the Dalai Lama had fled from Lhasa, and there were rumors he was heading south toward Sikkim or the Indian province of Assam.

In contrast with reports in India that fighting in Lhasa had subsided over the weekend, the maharaja said fighting in and around the capital "was particularly violent" on Tuesday.

"After taking the palace," he

Police Seeking Escaped Convict

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A 38-year-old escaped convict with a long prison record was the object of an intensive police search in central Pennsylvania today.

Sheriff Robert W. Miller said John H. Hilmer escaped from the Lycoming County Prison Thursday apparently by jumping aboard a garbage truck leaving the premises. Hilmer had been a trustee at the prison, Miller said. He was being held for trial on forgery.

Miller said Hilmer has been known to use several aliases. His prison record dates back to 1941. He was transferred to the Lycoming County Jail from Dauphin County Prison, Harrisburg, last October.

DICTATOR MUST LEAVE COUNTRY

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Former Venezuelan President Marcos Perez Jimenez, living in exile in a Miami Beach mansion, must leave the country by April 15, the government has declared.

He can go to any country of his choice as far as the United States is concerned.

Whether he will be open to question, his lawyers have filed application with the Immigration Service for delay. A ruling is not expected for 90 days.

The order issued March 13 by Joseph Savoretti, district director of the Immigration Service, applies also to Perez Jimenez' wife and four children.

Savoretti's order cannot be appealed but Perez Jimenez can ask for reconsideration or additional time.

An attorney for the 44-year-old former Venezuelan leader, David Walters of Miami, said Thursday he already has begun seeking such a delay.

Perez Jimenez was overthrown by a military junta a year ago, 10 years after he led another military group in seizing control of the South American country.

Attorneys Hassle On Cinder Trial

HARRISBURG (AP)—Defense and prosecuting attorneys were at odds today over whether seven defendants accused of cheating the state in cinder sales should go on trial together in Dauphin County Court Monday.

Judge Homer L. Kreider withheld a decision Thursday in the dispute between Dist. Atty. Huette F. Dowling and defense counsel James W. Evans.

Dowling, at a pre-trial conference with Kreider, said he would seek to consolidate the cases of four of the defendants. Evans contended Dowling was backing down on a promise to have all seven tried together.

The seven are charged with cheating the state of $64,000.

continued, "the Chinese then shelled the university monasteries of Sera and Drapung on the outskirts of Lhasa. There were about 12,000 student monks in the two universities at the time."

Although the maharaja said this action occurred on Tuesday, reports reached Kalimpong, on the Sikkim-Indian border, last Sunday that the two monasteries were burning.

The prince said the Chinese reportedly hold only a narrow strip through the eastern center of Tibet, from the Chinese border to Lhasa.

preached in his name to all nations. . . . You are witnesses of these things." Jesus led them out to Bethany. There He lifted up His hands in blessing. And so He parted from them.

This is the close of the story of Jesus' life. Now as Jesus said on the cross, "It is finished."

The Christian church knows, however, that the curtain has been drawn on only Act I. There is very little shifting of scenery; Act II starts almost immediately. The Christian conviction mounts: Christ is alive! The Lord has shown himself!

And always, with this conviction, there is the commission to the church, "that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations."

MUST ASK FOR JOBLESS PAY BY TUESDAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvanians who have exhausted their state jobless benefits must act before Wednesday to seek federal aid, the State Labor and Industry Department said Thursday.

Paul J. Smith, director of the Unemployment Compensation Bureau, reminded claimants that federal aid will be allowed only to persons who are on the federal rolls April 1.

He emphasized that in no event would a jobless worker be eligible for more than 30 state and 15 federal weeks of unemployment compensation.

In some areas there was confusion, he said, since workers construed the federal move as providing extra weeks of benefits on top of the 45 weeks of state and federal benefits already provided.

Pennsylvania's unemployment compensation law allows jobless workers to get up to 30 weeks of benefits. A federal antirecession move authorized workers to collect an additional 15 weeks of benefits in Pennsylvania.

However, the original federal law was to expire April 1, cutting off benefits. Congress recently extended the cutoff to June 30.

But the measure stipulated that no one could apply for the federal benefits after the end of March.

A person getting on the rolls immediately prior to April 1 could collect about 13 weeks of federal unemployment benefits. Anyone applying on or after April 1 would be ineligible for federal aid.

"The move was designed as a means for tapering off the federal benefits," Smith said.

DENVER — Magic Circle City of the Week.

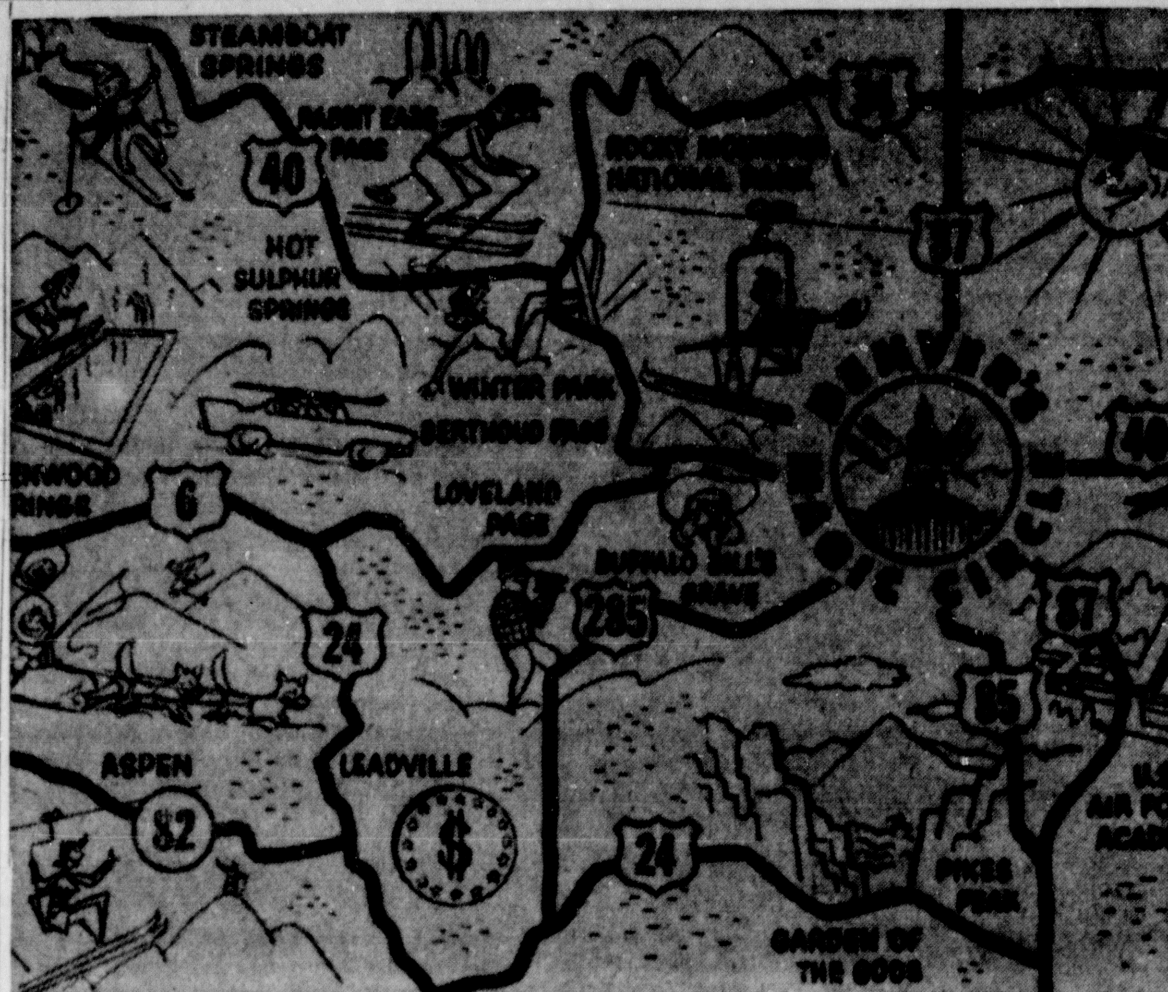

(By EDWARD COLLIER)
Denver is fun to visit at any time of year.

Especially before or after the bustle of summer, the Mile High City's spirit and charm show to real advantage. Denver has become a Western hub for winter recreation and sports—the place to start any number of short or long Magic Circle trips.

The thing that will impress you the most, whether it is your first visit or a return trip, is the clearness of the air, the distances you can see and the backdrop of the snowcapped peaks west of the city. And, of course, there is the heralded brilliant sunshine; on an amazing number of winter days, the temperature hits near the 60 mark.

Wide-Screen Vistas

The best way to visualize Denver, which sprawls over a tremendous area, is a visit to the top of the Daniels and Fisher Store Tower, a copy of the Campanile of St. Mark's in Venice. Here you can get a magnificent wide-screen picture of nearly 200 miles of the Rocky Mountain Range. You also will be impressed with the mushrooming skyscrapers—there seems to be one or more in constant progress.

There are many spots to visit and places to dine that are unique to Denver. One of our favorites is the Windsor Hotel, once the leading hostelry of the fabulous mining era, and now a historic landmark. Every night except Monday, a three-act melodrama is played in the Baby Doe Tabor ballroom of the hotel. The audience hisses the villain and cheers the hero with abandon. Also downtown is the Brown Palace Hotel, known around the world for its eye-catching eight-story balustrade lobby. And there always is Zeit's Buckhorn Restaurant (steaks) with its red-checked tablecloths and every inch of wall space crowded with big-game trophies from the days of Buffalo Bill.

Beautiful Civic Center

Your Magic Circle tour of the city can start at Civic Center, dominated by the Colorado State Capitol with its gold-leaf dome, and flanked by the State Historical Museum, Denver's new Public Library, the Art Museum with its magnificent Kress Collection, the Children's Museum and the City and County building. One block west of Civic Center is the home of the U. S. Mint. Tours are available for all over eight years of age (Monday through Friday), but you must call or write for advance reservations. (P. S. They frown on taking samples home!)

The parks, lakes and play areas are many and large, but a "must" is City Park. Here is the Museum of Natural History and Botanical Gardens, but your family magnet probably will be the Zoo. Newest addition is a sloth who prefers to cling to the ceiling of the fine tropical birdhouse. Other favorites are the kangaroo, talking crow, colorful mangrove ducks and the monkey house. There also is a children's Ranch Zoo.

Magic Skiing Circles

You can plan many different Magic Circle skiing trips out of Denver through late spring to Colorado's 33 developed areas; the state claims a staggering "10,000 square miles of powder snow and sun." There are excellent all-weather highways and around-the-clock maintenance on the 21 major mountain passes.

Any one of these trips is a thrilling experience for the spectator, novice or expert. Frequently there are night carnivals with the skiers carrying torches. Skiing, with a mounted horseback rider pulling the skier along trails and backroads, is exciting. Take your cameras, movie and still; the opportunities for wonderful shots are limited—but be careful of over-exposure of either film or yourself—the brilliant reflected sunlight is so strong it can give you a real sun tan.

One interesting Magic Circle trip is north on the new Denver-Boulder Turnpike, then via State 7 into Lyons and State 66 to Estes Park Village, gateway to the eastern entrance to Rocky Mountain National Park. Continue west 40. In this sector, which is part of Denver's Mountain Park System, you can see and photograph (from the other side of the fence) a herd of 20 buffalo.

Continue on to Berthoud Pass, one of the major skiing centers, where beginners and intermediate skiers are most welcome. After you have tried this course, stay on the same highway for Winter Park, the next major ski area. Final objective is across Rabbit Ears Pass (still U.S. 40) to Steamboat Springs. Its avid boosters call it "Ski Town U.S.A.," it was a pioneer in developing Colorado as a national winter sports mecca. In addition to the thrilling 300-foot Graham Jump, three new shorter jumps have been added. There is night skiing on well-lighted runs Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.

A longer but spectacular trip that will let you see Colorado at its winter best takes you west out of Denver and to the scenic Lariat Trail road up Lookout Mountain to Buffalo Bill Cody's grave and the museum containing authentic relics of this almost legendary man and the Indians of his day. Stay on State 68 until it hits U.S. 40. In this sector, which is part of Denver's Mountain Park System, you can see and photograph (from the other side of the fence) a herd of 20 buffalo.

In addition to the thrilling 300-foot Graham Jump, three new shorter jumps have been added. There is night skiing on well-lighted runs Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays.

There is still another Magic Circle trip out of Denver, this time to the Colorado Springs area. It can be a new experience, even for many Coloradans, by taking U.S. 285 west from the capital city to Shaffers Crossing, where you turn left and south) on State 125. For seven miles you drive through a completely unheralded but — to me — one of the most beautiful and unpolluted spots in the Rockies. The road runs along the floor of a canyon whose red stone walls almost close together at one point.

Continue to Woodland Park, and on U.S. 24 to Manitou Springs, for a sample or a jug of its mineral water to drink. Nearby is the Cave of the Winds with its miles of passageways containing stalactite, stalagmite, crystal and calcite formations.

Next stop is the touted tourist attraction, the Garden of the Gods. This great natural park, with its remarkable and vivid red sandstone formations, is even more awesome and photogenic when it is mantled by snow. From here go on into downtown Colorado Springs, one of the nation's attractive cities, and south to Broadmoor, the famed resort. From here you can drive up to the Shrine of the Sun, a memorial to Will Rogers. Stop off at Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, which offers a fine collection.

On your way back to Denver (U.S. 85 and 87) there is something new to see. Between Colorado Springs and the little town of Monument is the magnificent new U.S. Air Academy in the shadow of mighty Pikes Peak. The setting and the striking style of architecture have given the air cadets one of the most ultra-modern campuses (17,000 acres) in the country.

Erich Raeder, former admiral in Hitler's navy, was convicted as a war criminal in the Nuremberg trials. But he was awarded a monthly pension of about $550 per month.

Winter And Spring Storms Lash Wide Areas Of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A mixture of winter and spring storms battered areas in the eastern half of the nation today. The violent wintry weather which raked the eastern Rockies and Plains States appeared ended. Heavy snow piled up in central Lower Michigan, and Wisconsin as the storm swept into the Midwest after dumping more than a foot of snow in sections of Colorado and southwest Nebraska. The snow belt extended eastward across northern areas into New York state.

Rains, severe thunderstorms and strong winds swept across many areas south of the snow belt.

Christmaslike Scene

The early spring snow carpet gave the northern areas a Christmaslike scene, two days before Easter.

Northeasterly winds of 20 to 30 m.p.h. whipped the snow into drifts as the storm lashed areas in Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan Thursday.

Driving conditions were hazardous.

Nearly a foot of snow was on the ground in La Crosse, Wis., while four inches fell in a six-hour period at Grand Rapids and Saginaw, Mich. Heaviest falls reported in New York state were three inches at Binghamton and more than an inch at Buffalo.

Storm Moving East

The extensive storm area, centered early this morning in Indiana, was expected to move to the middle Atlantic coastal region by tonight.

Wet weather was in store for most of the Great Lakes region, the Ohio Valley, parts of the middle Mississippi Valley and along the Atlantic Coast. Snow or snow flurries were indicated in the northern areas and showers in the Ohio Valley and along the Atlantic Coast.

South of the snow belt showers and thundershowers, with strong winds, dampened Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and rain, mixed with snow, pelted Iowa.

Four Trains Stalled

Ahead of the cold front, extending southward, rain, thunderstorms and strong winds were reported across the southern Appalachians and as far south as Alabama. Severe thunderstorms, with winds up to 50 m.p.h., lashed the Birmingham area and near Pelham, Tenn.

Four westbound Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad trains, with 450 passengers, were halted in the western Nebraska-northeast Colorado snow-covered region while communications were restored. A railroad spokesman said the tracks have been cleared of snow and the trains were halted as a safety precaution.

U. S. MASTER PLAN WINNING FAVOR IN WEST

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain, France and West Germany were reported generally favorable today to a U.S. master plan for negotiations with the Soviet Union on the future of Germany.

The aim of the plan is to achieve the unification of West Germany and Communist East Germany in stages over a period of years. This would begin with creation of a loose federation and end with the conclusion of a German peace treaty.

Limitations on forces in central Europe and an end to the division of Berlin also are envisioned as the plan progressed.

Ministers To Talk

The foreign ministers of Britain and France are to discuss the program with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter here next Tuesday.

West German representatives will join the talks Wednesday in advance of broader discussions among foreign ministers of all the North Atlantic Treaty powers meeting Thursday for a NATO 10th anniversary session.

The preliminary discussions are pointed toward an East-West Geneva mini-summit meeting in Geneva May 11 and a later summit conference, as proposed to the Soviet Union by the Western powers Thursday.

An Open Question

It is an open question whether the U.S.S.R. would be interested in any part of the U.S. plan or in any other which the Western powers might suggest.

Some officials say there is at least a slight possibility Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be seriously interested in negotiating an acceptable German settlement.

Others say that whether or not Khrushchev is interested, the Western powers must go into the negotiations with the Soviets prepared to put on the table a set of reasonable proposals which would dramatically demonstrate the willingness of the Western powers to make agreements with the Soviet Union on fair terms.

Over The Falls To Death

William W. Welch, right, and his pregnant wife, Elice, struggle to keep their canoe upright as it goes over a waterfall in the Charles river at Watertown, Mass. The canoe tipped over and Welch later died from his efforts to save his wife, who was saved by rescuers from shore. A stiff wind brought the canoe to the edge of the falls as the couple was learning to paddle. (Copyright Boston Globe 1959 From AP Wirephoto)

ANTI-REDS HOLD CAPITAL AREA IN TIBET

TAIPEI (AP)—Anti-Communist forces in Tibet still control areas surrounding the capital of Lhasa and have cut highways linking the city with the outside world, Vice President Chen Cheng of Nationalist China Thursday.

Chen's statement, if confirmed, means rebels are astride the long and tenuous lifelines supplying the Chinese Communist garrison in Tibet. Chen said the Communist garrison in Lhasa now is supplied only by limited airdrops.

He added that fighting at Lhasa shifted to the suburbs last Sunday, and Communist communications and ammunition dumps were attacked and destroyed.

Fighting Spreads
The vice president's written statement said the battle now has spread throughout Tibet. Many tribes have joined with the fierce Khamba tribal warriors, who are credited with touching off the fighting last week, he asserted.

The movement inside Tibet has been aided by other anti-Communist forces operating in border areas between Tibet and three far-western Chinese provinces, Chen reported.

These provinces are Szechwan, Tsinghai and Sikang, through which run two roads built by the Chinese Communists to supply their forces in Tibet.

Chen said the border forces of Chinese, Moslems and Tibetans now are moving to areas south of Lhasa to set up bases for sustained operations.

"I firmly believe that the Chinese Communists will never be able to crush the anti-Communist forces in Tibet," Chen said, "and that eventually they will be defeated not only in Tibet but also in other parts of the Chinese mainland."

REPORT PURGE OF OFFICERS IN IRAQI CRISIS

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A vast purge of army officers and government personnel in Iraq is reported by an American broadcaster just kicked out of the country.

Winston Burdette of the Columbia Broadcasting System said on arrival here Thursday that Baghdad prisons were filled "until there is no more room in them for all the political detainees."

Burdette implied that the purge threatens what efficiency was left in the Iraqi government and army after the cleanup last summer of partisans of the pro-Western monarchy and assassination of Premier Nuri Said. He said the latest wave of dismissals and arrests has decimated the corps of army officers and depleted the ranks of

RUSS FISHING FLEET FORAY STIRS PROTEST

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—A foray by a big Soviet fishing fleet into waters off Alaska's Bristol Bay touched off protests up and down the north Pacific Coast today.

The presence of the Soviet flotilla in a region where they have never appeared before was viewed as an extension of the economic cold war.

The objections, however vociferous, may be futile because the upwards of 50 trawlers and auxiliary vessels are clustered in international waters where ships of all nations have free access.

Agreement Necessary
But the fact the Soviets aren't violating any international law didn't diminish the chorus of concern.

Alaska's acting governor, Hugh J. Wade, called for a four-nation fishing agreement as "absolutely government personnel.

Premier Abdel Karim Kassem has lost control of the situation, the American correspondent reported. While Kassem speaks as a man of moderation, Burdett said, "his own people's court acts like an independent branch of government, ignoring his leadership."

Burdett was one of three American newsmen given less than 12 hours to leave Iraq by the revolutionary regime, which told them only "you have been here long enough."

The other two were Larry Collins of United Press International, who had been in Baghdad only a week, and William McHale of Time and Life magazines, who had been there two weeks, the same time as Burdett.

Another American newsmen, Dennis Ford of Time, was refused permission to stay when he flew in to Baghdad from Beirut Thursday.

There are still three Western newsmen in Iraq—Stan Carter of The Associated Press, Erik Durshmiel of the Canadian Broadcasting Corp. and Douglas Brown of the London Daily Telegraph.

MUMMASBURG — The Misses Laura and Grace Kane and Mrs. Hazel Baer, Baltimore, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Rinehart and son, Steve, Bellefonte, were weekend visitors of Mr. Rinehart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Rinehart, and family.

Mrs. Bessie Riddle, Hanover, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Culison and family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and children, Joann, Jean, Bruce and Lester, visited Mrs. Miller's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Jeffercoat, and family, near Harney, Sunday.

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Thomas L. Butler, 24, was found guilty of first degree murder Thursday night in the shooting of a grocery store owner last Dec. 13.

A Delaware County jury of six men and six women recommended the penalty be life imprisonment. Butler was convicted of slaying Joseph Elmer, 59, in a robbery at Elmer's grocery in East Lansdowne. He testified the shooting occurred after he had spent the afternoon drinking in neighborhood taverns.

Formal sentencing was delayed by Judge John V. Diggins. The verdict was returned after seven hours of deliberation.

necessary" to bring the Soviet Union into international fisheries control efforts — with the United States, Canada and Japan.

At Vancouver, B.C. the independent United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union called on the Canadian government to ask the U.S.S.R. to hold back its trawlers. The Navy, which has been keeping the Soviet fishing fleet under surveillance as part of routine patrol duties, didn't indicate any alarm.

Rear Adm. Arnold W. McKechie, commander of the Alaska Sea Frontier and the 17th Naval District at Kodiak, Alaska, said "Their presence in the southeastern Bering Sea is of no particular military concern to us, but of course we are keeping track of what they do. They are in international waters where they have every legal right to be."

200 STRIKERS IN BATTLE AT PAPER PLANT

MECHANICVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — A force of 200 striking paper workers battled salaried employees and police in front of a struck West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. plant Thursday night.

Three officials were shoved, kicked and dragged, the company said.

The free-for-all broke out as 14 policemen attempted to escort 16 salaried workers into the plant. Moments before, Mayor Thomas Nolan pleaded with the strikers to break up the demonstration.

"This is anarchy. This is lawlessness," he shouted to the booing throng.

Hundreds of spectators crowded around the strikers' picket lines.

The United Papermakers and Paperworkers Union struck Jan. 20 in a dispute over the wording of contract clauses governing seniority, grievances and management rights. Wages are not an issue.

The plant, in this Hudson River city 22 miles north of Albany, suspended operations. A total of 940 hourly workers were idled.

The company resumed paper-making last Friday. It divided 250 salaried workers into three shifts to operate machines.

This action touched off a demonstration last Friday night. It did not reach the magnitude of Thursday night's 3 1/2-hour melee.

When the police escort and salaried workers moved toward the main gate, the pickets met them head-on and fighting began in the middle of the street, newsmen said.

Four carloads of Saratoga County deputy sheriffs sped to reinforce city police.

A Westvaco spokesman said approximately 35 workers then entered the plant but six others went home because, he claimed, they had suffered bruise in the scuffles. Another 35, who had been scheduled to finish their shift at 11 p.m., left the plant at the same time, he said.

ASSEMBLY IS FORGETTING NEW MANSION

By BILL GIBSON

HARRISBURG (AP)—With the scramble to find money to pay the Commonwealth's ever-increasing bills, the General Assembly once again is on the way to forgetting about plans for a new executive mansion.

The move to replace what some describe as the architectural monstrosity on Front Street facing the Susquehanna River here with a modern structure was started back in 1945.

Land has been purchased, drawings have been made and laws were passed to authorize the governor to sell the old mansion and proceed with building the new.

An artist's conception of the proposed new executive home, patterned after historic Independence Hall in Philadelphia, is on display in the Capitol rotunda.

All that has been needed is the money to provide the state's chief executive with a better place to live and carry on official functions.

But the price tag—$2,500,000—is the stumbling block forcing the plans to gather dust.

Not A Budget

With the state's present financial situation, the Legislature has not mentioned money for a new mansion. In fact, Gov. Lawrence—as have three predecessors—left the item out of the state budget.

The mansion—an architectural jumble converted from private residence in 1864 and added to in helter-skelter fashion by chief executives over the years—has long been considered a thorn in the side of the Commonwealth's pride.

Visitors looking at the old relic on the Susquehanna River for the first time have asked: "Is THAT the governor's mansion?"

Use Summer Quarters

Gov. Edward Martin (1943-47) relieved the situation somewhat by making a summer mansion out of a modern home at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation 20 miles away. It was originally built for the state's adjutant general.

Many of the succeeding governors have turned the "summer mansion" into a year-round residence except for official functions. Lawrence, however, moved into the Front Street mansion when he took office early this year and said he would use the "summer mansion" only in the summer.

The home at the Gap is a direct contrast with the old mansion. The summer place was furnished with costly antiques. Beautifully landscaped, it comes completely equipped with an Olympic-sized swimming pool and bathhouses.

USW CHARGES RIDICULOUS, OFFICIAL SAYS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The president of the United Steelworkers charges the steel industry with being "hell-bent on forming a strike" and with "deliberately promoting strike talk to stimulate scare buying of its products."

David J. McDonald said Thursday that proof of his charge was contained in a statement made by Clifford Hood, president of U.S. Steel Corp., the industry's pacesetter.

Hood, in replying Wednesday to an appeal by President Eisenhower to hold down a new spiral of inflation, had said:

"With the already high rates of wages, we in United States Steel see no reason why there should be more employment cost increases and more price increases again this year. We will exert every effort to avoid both."

Hood was not immediately available for comment on McDonald's prepared statement, but Joseph Block, president of Inland Steel Corp., branded the charge "ridiculous."

"No one in our industry wants a strike; certainly not our company," added Block.

McDonald assured President Eisenhower that the USW "will enter our forthcoming negotiations with a deep sense of our responsibility not only to our members but to the nation at large."

"I cannot emphasize too strongly our union does not want a strike," he added.

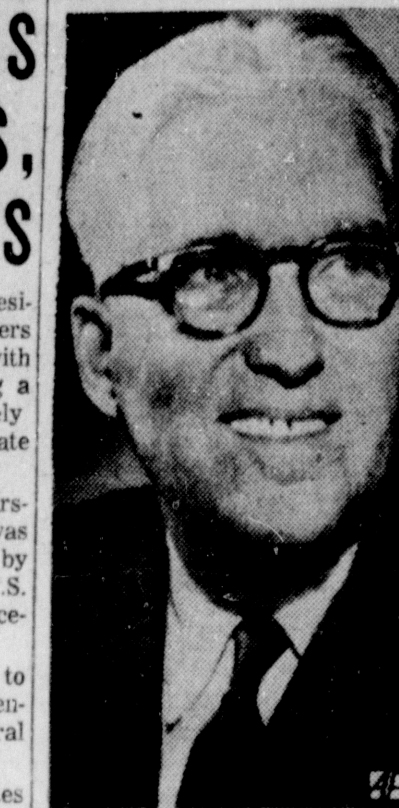

Current industry contracts expire June 30. Negotiations for new pacts open in mid May in New York.

SAYS HIGHWAY FUNDS SHORT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Anticipated motor fund revenue in the next two years will fall short of Pennsylvania's highway needs, Chairman George N. Wade of the Senate Highways Committee reported Thursday.

The Cumberland County Republican said that estimates given his committee showed that the motor fund will take in about $481,500,000 during the 1959-61 biennium starting June 1.

He added that the State High-

GLORIA SAYS BABIES COME BEFORE AWARD

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor: A baby is more important than an Academy award any day, says blonde and beautiful Gloria Graham, who gave up her movie career at its height to stay home and take care of her baby daughter.

For two years Gloria has been concentrating on formulas and playpens rather than Klieg lights, giving full attention to Marianna Paulette, now 2, and her son David, now 10.

"All of a sudden I just felt it wasn't fair to the baby just to leave her with a nurse when she was so little," she said. "I felt lonesome for her and I wasn't around her. So I just dropped everything and went in for being a full-time mother."

Making New Film

Gloria, who has starred both on Broadway and in Hollywood, now is making a new picture, "Odds Against Tomorrow," filmed in New York. She arranged her schedule, however, so she would be away from her home in Van Nuys, Calif., only two weeks.

"I call up the children every night. It's awful to be so far away from them," she said.

Little Marianna was born in Paris, soon after Gloria completed the London filming of "The Man Who Never Was," with Cliff Webb. Soon after the baby's birth Gloria and her husband, writer-producer Cy Howard, were divorced.

"Children Are Nicer"

"I guess that had something to do with my feeling," says Gloria. "I felt that the baby deserved the full-time attention of at least one parent."

"I hope now I'll be able to make a few pictures and still spend most of my time with the children," says Gloria. "A career is nice, of course, but children are nicer."

ways Department estimated it will need an additional 53 million dollars in order to take advantage of federal matching funds for highway construction.

Wade told the Pennsylvania Automotive Assn. that the estimates were projected on the basis of current tax revenues flowing into the fund which is built up from gasoline taxes, license fees and other motor vehicle levies.

The Highways Department has yet to submit its motor fund budget to the General Assembly.

OWNERS MAY GET PINBALL MACHINES OUT

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Justice Department reportedly is preparing a policy statement giving owners of multi-coin pinball machines enough time to get the illegal devices out of Pennsylvania.

The action stems from a March 18 Superior Court decision outlawing the machines in the Commonwealth.

A Justice Department source, who asked not to be identified, said Thursday that 30 days is the time limit under consideration but the final decision was up to Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern.

Possibility Of Appeal

That decision hinges on the possibility of an appeal of the Superior Court ruling. Owners of machines in Fayette County involved in the test case were reported drafting the appeal to the Supreme Court.

The department estimates there are about 20,000 multi-coin pinball devices operating in the state. Each has an average value of about $900. Outlawing the devices would cut into the revenue of some municipalities that license them. Only a few seizures by law enforcement officers have been reported since the Superior Court ruled in the Fayette County case.

57 DISTRICTS FACING LOCAL OPTION VOTES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Fifty-seven boroughs and townships in 26 counties will vote in the May 19 primary election on the option of selling alcoholic beverages.

The State Liquor Control Board said Thursday that 35 separate questions related to the sale of beer or liquor will be decided in the balloting.

A total of 28 local governments now allowing beer or liquor sales will vote on proposals to rule out the legal sale of one or both.

Various Questions

The board said 20 municipalities will vote on the sale of both liquor and beer, one will vote on these two and beer distribution; 27 will vote only on liquor, six on beer alone, one on beer distributors licenses and two on all four questions, including the establishment of state liquor stores.

Among the issues to be decided will be a vote on whether to legalize liquor sales for some 6,000 residents of Forty-Forth, Luzerne County, and a proposal to legalize liquor sales for 6,000 residents of Greene Township, Franklin County. Forty-Forth now permits beer sales while Greene Township prohibits both beer and liquor sales.

In a speech in 1923, Calvin Coolidge said: "After order and liberty, economy is one of the highest essentials of a free government."

The wider the track... the steadier the stance... the better the ride!

Slide in behind the controls of this gorgeous automobile, pull away and feel what happens—or doesn't happen—at the first curve or corner. Less lean. Less sway. Wide-Track Wheel design is the reason. No other car, only Pontiac, has it. The wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens the stance but not the car. You're steadier, balanced, more secure. Narrow track cars can't match it. This is a big year for Pontiac—with many more to come. It can be your big year, too. Get a bright new Wide-Track Pontiac from a dealer and take it out for a drive today.

YOU GET THE SOLID QUALITY OF BODY BY PONTIAC.

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Dotted lines show conventional wheel positions. Pontiac's wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens the stance, not the car. Pontiac hugs tighter in curves and corners. Sway and lean are considerably reduced, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier.
